CONFESS DECLARE ANNOUNCE + IMAGINATION

Commanding The Supernatural

IFE ADETONA

ABOUT THE BOOK

CDA, as taught by the servant of God is a household name among Sadozites and many Christians across the world today. CDA is a spiritual elixir that can never fail to deliver results. It is a code both for accessing the supernatural and commanding the supernatural. Many who have come across the CDA formula or capsule either in the messages or writing of Pastor Ife Adetona has testified of its attending results.

If CDA is so anointed by God in producing life changing results across every area of life, what do you think of CDAPLUS? CDA PLUS is an updated version of the CDA combination inspired by God to see every believer reign as kings and priests in every sphere of their lives.

This book is divided into two parts. The first part is based on CDA while the second part expatiates on why CDA may not work for some and how to always get results with it. The second part also introduces the working dimension of CDAPLUS and how believers can take charge of whatever situation they may encounter in life.

This book is a powerful tool in your hand. You will no longer allow the waves of happening to carry you around but you will be in control. You will rule from the place of the supernatural and things will work just the way you want them.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Ife Adetona is an anointed preacher of the gospel. He is the President of the Sons and Daughters of Zion [SADOZ] Global Harvest Ministries. SADOZ is an interdenominational and discipleship ministry which has seen thousands of people baptized in the Holy Ghost with the evidence of speaking in tongues and helped people develop a friend to friend relationship with the Person of the Holy Spirit. SADOZ's daily discipleship and devotional manual called Daily Communion reaches and blesses tens of thousands of people daily to the glory of God.

The author is also the president of the Koinonia Bible Institute [KBI], an online training academy of SADOZ which offers over twenty (25) courses that cut across all facets of life. Some of the courses/schools are: School of Ministry, School of Purpose, School of Leadership, School of Business, School of Prayer, School of Deliverance, School of Healing, Masterclass on Sex Education, Masterclass on Courtship, School of Mental Health, School of Sex for the married, Miraculous School of Conception, Encounter School for Singles and more.

Ife Adetona is an author of over 60 books that is imparting the body of Christ maximally. He is the husband of Elizabeth Ife-Adetona and their home is blessed with Faith Ife-Adetona.

Testimonies on CDA from Koinonia Bible Institute, SADOZ

During the course of one of the teachings in SOH that daddy talked about whatever that is painful is not normal and it's not from God. I was experiencing menstrual pain at that time. I started confessing that: whatever is painful is not normal and is not from God. I made a decree and commanded the pain to leave my body in the name of Jesus. After some minutes, it reduced and from there it left and I was whole. Dr. Chioma

My testimony is that CDA put ends to a problem I had been battling with for years. Oluwole P

After listening to the lectures- CDA I & II, I have been applying it to any storm that seem wavering, mountain that seems unmoving and at any point during hard time.

Praise God, it happened that after listening to one of the lectures which is CDA I & II. God has so done it that it dynamically and distinctively blessed my soul, body and spirit. In situations where there was no hope and during trying times, I always faith things. I confess it, declare it to friends and announce it around and it always work. I have realized that it is not about how long you pray but declaring your statement of faith is keen. Olaseinde F.

CDA I & II were great lectures! I've discovered and learnt a lot in this lecture, especially about the authority we have as believers, I exercised them and it worked a lot and the fact that we are spiritual beings living in a spiritual environment opened my eyes. Aremu E.

I have built strong faith especially with the CDA line up which has helped me speak my prayer into existence using the healing scripture. Going through this school, I lived in divine health, I never felt any form of pain or headache and even where the devil tried, I always knew how to overcome from the knowledge herein. Abiodun S.

I was sick with ulcer with typhoid and malaria and was admitted to the hospital. After all the treatment, I was still not ok. But I remembered our capsule in SADOZ which is CDA. Then I used it and was made whole. Praise to God. Adegoke O.

Before I attended school of purpose, I usually have severe headache but the topic: Confess, Declare and Announce made me confess and declare to the headache and I was healed. Kasali Bukola

INTRODUCTION

CDA has been a part of me and our ministry since inception. It is a revelation God gave through me to our generation as a weapon of the supernatural. Results have proved that it is indeed a weapon of liberation and a rod of command of the supernatural.

CDA means:

C - Confess

D - Declare

A - Announce

CDA connotes Confessing, Declaring and Announcing.

CDA always works. However, in few instances, I have heard some people say: “I apply CDA, it didn’t work”. They may apply CDA on some things and it works but they would apply it on certain things and they would say it didn’t work. Whenever I hear such remarks, I am bewildered. There is no way you will apply CDA and it won’t work. If it didn’t work for you or on a certain situation, it means you didn’t apply it well. It means you are missing it somewhere. If I give you the password to my phone to operate it and you tell me that the phone is not responding, I know automatically that the problem is not with the phone, it is rather with the way you input the code because if you put the code properly, it will surely work.

After much personal deliberation, I discovered why it may not work for some people in certain situation. I discovered that what was wrong is their application. It is that aspect or aspects which they are not doing right that I want to emphasize in this book.

For the sake of those who may be coming across CDA for the first time or even those who need to be refreshed, the first part of this book is based on the concept of CDA. The latter part emphasizes the aspect where we often miss it in the application of CDA that may not allow it to give its full result.

This book also includes the plus aspect which makes it CDAPLUS. After many years of teaching and applying the revelation of CDA with amazing results and proofs to back it up, God upgraded it and that gives us CDAPLUS.

C - Confess

D - Declare

A - Announce

+ - Imagination

If CDA delivers so much result, just imagine what CDAPLUS would give. I have said it again and again that all you need is CDA. With CDA, you can turn a worst situation into a good situation. With CDAPLUS in your hands, you can have all your prayers answered! Do you have a pressing prayer request? CDAPLUS is all you need.

CHAPTER ONE

THE SPIRIT OF FAITH

We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak. 2 Corinthians 4:13

You might have heard several messages or teachings where you were told to speak and to speak repeatedly. There are also several Bible passages that back up the saying or speaking attitude of believers. You must have heard several faith preachers saying: “say it”, “speak positively” and so on. Even secular motivational speakers and psychologists tell their clients to always speak right. You are probably familiar with the quote: “your confession is your possession.” Let me tell you that speaking rightly is not actually a way to psyche you or a way to encourage or cheer you up. It is a supernatural force and a spiritual activity that has a lot to do with your dominion here on earth. It is biblically based.

WHY MUST CHRISTIANS SPEAK?

1. It shows that you believe: Speaking shows that you believe. If you don’t believe it, you cannot say it and saying it proves that you believe it. The Word says *that without faith, no man can please God*¹. The question is, do you believe God? It is what you say that tells God, the angels and evil spirits that you truly believe. Speaking also assures you as a person that you believe. For with the heart, man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. - Romans 10:10.

2. It shows what you believe: If you believe all things are well around you but you speak negatively, that is a pointer to the fact that what you actually believe is the negative. You must believe enough to say it. In 2 Corinthians 4:13 Apostle Paul says:

We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak.

We have the same spirit of faith with the fathers of faith like Noah, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Moses, Elijah and so on. The passage expressed that all these men of faith had one thing in common- they were speakers and sayers. Abram was like a man with no child who woke up one morning and told his neighbours- don't call me Mr Abram again, but call me Daddy Twins. If it were to be today, he would have to advertise that change of name in the newspapers and have to change his name on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and other social media platform. With the kind of influence he had, all the newspapers, bloggers and social media influencers would have made it a trending news and even make a jest out of it. Noah, on the other hand, was a man who woke up one morning and began to warn the people that it was going to rain and the earth would be flooded. Meanwhile, it had never rained on earth before that time. Elijah also proclaimed that by his word, there shall be no rain.

Apostle Paul tells us that we know these men had the spirit of faith because they couldn't hold themselves back from speaking. They went everywhere talking about what they believed even when it didn't look like it: "... as it is written I believed, therefore have I spoken". How did Paul prove that he had the spirit of faith? He spoke! How can you prove that you also have the same spirit of faith as the fathers? You have to also speak and always speak. The spirit of faith is a speaking spirit. They believed- they spoke. I believe- I also speak. If you believe- you will also speak. For with the heart, man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. You believe that you are saved- fantastic! You believe that Christ died for you on the cross- beautiful! But the Bible stipulates that it is with your mouth that you make your confession unto salvation.

Our Lord Jesus is saying- do you actually believe in my death upon the cross of Calvary? I respect your belief! But how do you show that you believe? It is by a 'mouth' confession. I ministered to someone who was ready to give his life to Christ. I told him to say the sinner's prayer, and he asked if he had to say it since he already believed in his heart. I asked him, "who do you love most in your life?" He said his mum. Then, I asked again, "have you ever told her you loved her?" He said "Of course!" I asked, "how many times have you told her that?" He said, "several times". I explained to him that his mum actually knew that he loved her, but saying it gives her the assurance and confessing his love will also have an impression on him as a person. Many of us have been in a situation where you love someone dearly but you feel shy to express yourself to the person. Meanwhile, you find it easy to express it in your heart. However, as soon as you are able to express it to them, you have committed yourself with the word of your mouth. There is no commitment to something you only said in your heart. There are people I have promised things in my heart and when I couldn't fulfil it, there was no guilt in my heart, but when I make a promise with my words, I am committed to doing it. In essence, speaking gives commitment to your faith; it tells us what you believe.

3. We are living in a spiritual environment: We are still looking at why we speak. Several people think that when they pray or speak, it is only God and probably people who are close by that hear them. Often time, they don't see a need to speak their prayers aloud. They believe it is okay to say it within since God hears and sees their thoughts but- oh no! We live in a spiritual environment, so we are not only speaking to God; there are several spirits around us that must hear what we have to say. In the School of Prayer, I taught that many of our prayers are not only meant for God to hear but also for the spirit beings in our spiritual environment to hear.

Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us. Hebrews 12:1 KJV

Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a huge crowd of witnesses to the life of faith, let us strip off every weight that slows us down, especially the sin that so easily trips us up. And let us run with endurance the race God has set before us. NLT.

Here, the Bible reveals to us that there is an immense crowd of witnesses around us. Another passage says; say not before an *angel that it's an error*². We are surrounded by a huge crowd of witnesses. Who are these witnesses? They are angels, evil spirits, human spirits, the spirits of just men like Abraham, Moses, Elijah and many others. We are surrounded by the twenty-four elders. We are surrounded by men. We are also surrounded by God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit. Indeed, we have such a huge crowd of witnesses around us. We live in a spiritual environment which is not limited to what we see with our eyes.

But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels, To the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect, And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel.

Hebrews 12:22-24

It is true that God hears the thoughts of our hearts, but ninety percent of our prayers are not actually addressed to God in the spirit-realm. Sometimes, they are directed to evil spirits because when you are sick, you are to command evil spirits and the devil himself to lose his grip on you. There are times when you have to speak to angels in the place of prayer and at other times, you need to speak to the spirits of men. And all these spirits: men, angels and evil spirits cannot hear your thoughts. So, it's not just about speaking to God! God hears the thought of your heart, but these spirits will not obey you unless they hear you speak. Also, there are times you have to speak to things. We saw that our Lord Jesus Christ even spoke to a fig tree and the wind. If He had only thought but not spoken, the tree would not have dried up and the wind would not have ceased. Imagine if Jesus was only standing in front of that fig tree thinking? Thinking is not just enough, speaking is very important.

There is a huge assembly that comprises the twenty-four elders, the Cherubim, the Seraphim, the Archangels and the angels. The Bible calls it innumerable company of angels. Elisha prayed that the eyes of his servant would be opened to see how much they were surrounded by these invisible beings³. Can you close your eyes and imagine for a moment the crowd of beings all around you at every given time? So, whenever you say “I am sick”- can you imagine the number of people who heard you? When you say “I am jobless” in the corner of your room or when you say “I am just worthless”, can you imagine the number of people who are witnesses to those words? In the same vein, when you speak positively, these beings are present and they heard your confession of faith.

The Force of Witnesses

When I was a child, my mother told me a lot of folktales. One re-occurring scenario is that of kings who made vows in public to their subjects to request for anything- up to half of their kingdoms and it would be granted. Many times, a subject would make an expensive demand, but because the king had made a vow before his subjects and would not want to lose his reputation, he is committed to grant it. ⁴⁻⁵That was the same thing that played out with King Herod, who promised the daughter of Herodias anything up to half of his kingdom and the mother told her to request for the head of John the Baptist on a tray. The Bible had reported earlier that the king respected John and was even afraid of killing him, but this time, he had to do it. The Scriptures put it this way: “And the king was exceedingly sorry; yet for his oath’s sake, and for their sakes, which sat with him, he would not reject her.” NLT puts it this way: “Then the king deeply regretted what he had said; but because of the vows he had made in front of his guests, he couldn’t refuse her.”

I want you to bring that analogy to the spiritual perspective. When the King of kings says: “by his stripes you have been healed” or when He says: “I am your Shepherd, you shall not want” and when He says: “the young lion is permitted to lack and suffer hunger but those that trust in the Lord will not lack any good thing”; He said it in the front of thousands upon thousands of witnesses, which included His angels and the twenty-four elders! But when you are not seeing the result of these promises in your life or if you are experiencing the direct opposite, you are expected to speak! You are to remind Him of His words and promises. At that moment, you are transferred to the courtroom of the King of heaven with the witnesses affirming that when He made those promises to you they were there and He is expected to grant them. God would have to prove His integrity in front of the witnesses. What I am saying is highly biblical, Moses challenged God to put His integrity into consideration before destroying the Israelites in his anger⁶. NLT says: “so the Lord changed his mind”.

When Abraham was to negotiate the lives of those living in Sodom and Gomorrah, he challenged God with His integrity. NLT puts it this way:

Surely you wouldn't do such a thing, destroying the righteous along with the wicked. Why, you would be treating the righteous and the wicked exactly the same! Surely you wouldn't do that! Should not the Judge of all the earth do what is right?"

The moment you remind God of His vow to you, His integrity is committed. In the same vein, when you command the devil that is afflicting you with sicknesses and disappointments to take off in Jesus Name, the twenty-four elders, the angels, the spirits of just men surrounding you will look at him and say, you heard him! We were right there when you were defeated on the cross and we were there when mankind was given the Name that is above every other name⁸. I believe you are now realizing the power in your confession.

4. Speaking Quickens your Spirit

It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

John 6:63

Another reason we speak is because it quickens our spirit. Yes, speaking quickens the spirit of man. Jesus said: "the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit..." The word is spirit and it is the word that quickens. And how is the word passed across? By speaking! It is the spoken word that quickens! The words are spirit and they can quicken your own spirit man. That is, it makes your spirit come alive. When you meditate on the word and you confess it aloud, your spirit becomes alive. I usually tell people that spiritual blessings or getting answers from God is like a rain. The size of the bucket you put in the rain will determine how much you get. Your bucket doesn't determine the amount of rain that will fall, but your bucket determines how much you can get. How well your spirit is quickened regularly determines how much you will get from God. Jesus Christ said the words I have spoken unto you, those spoken words are spirit and life! When you speak those words to yourself, your spirit becomes widened and enlarged to get more from God.

5. Speaking Deadens Negative Thoughts

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ.

Ephesians 1:3.

Several people have issues with negative thoughts. They find it difficult to believe that they are prosperous, that they are healed, that they cannot be barren, and that they have all spiritual blessings given to them through Christ Jesus. When you have these thoughts conflicting with your faith, what do you do? You speak what you believe. It doesn't matter if your thoughts contradict what you are saying at first, saying the right thing will reconfigure your mind. The shield of faith covers your heart, and that's where negative thoughts emanate from: above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked- Ephesians 6:16. This shield of faith is the Word of God! The scripture says "the word of faith which we preach"⁹! So, the Word of God is that shield of faith. When you have it covering your heart, what happens? The fiery darts of negative thoughts will not get into you. You can achieve this by consistently speaking. There is a saying that you cannot prevent a bird from flying above your head but you can stop it from perching and making its nest on your head, in the same vein you cannot stop a negative thought from flying across your mind but you can stop it from building its house in you and the cheapest way to stop that is through persistent speaking.

6. It makes the Word well Digested

When you speak out the word, it becomes processed. It is said that the digestion system is in three stages: digestion, absorption, and assimilation. It is when the food gets properly absorbed within the body that it can perform its role. Digestion is the first stage, and it starts from the mouth; absorbing and assimilating the nutrients into your bloodstream is the last stage. The same thing applies to the word. When you speak the word boldly, it passes through the stages of digestion within you.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not anything made that was made. In him was life; and the life was the light of men. And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not. 14 And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth. John 1:1-4, 14.

The food we eat contains nutrients and substances that our body needs. Likewise, the word contains life and this life can be further broken down to become light. When this light is fully absorbed, it shines in darkness and the darkness cannot comprehend it. That is a mystery! When you receive a word or a promise from God, you have to pound it the way you chew food in your mouth in order to bring life out of it. This life would further turn into light and that light will shine in darkness and the darkness would not be able to comprehend it. The Bible says that the word was made flesh and dwelt with men. That means the word will further transform into visible results and dwell with you. If you receive the word of God on fruitfulness and you speak it regularly, the promise will give life to your spirit. It will shine as a light in the darkness of barrenness and will give you a child, and the child will dwell with you. Speaking makes the word well digested.

6. Speaking is what Gets the Job Done

I started this book on Confess, Declare and Announce by telling you the implication of speaking out. I want you to understand that it is speaking that actually gets the job done! It is what gives you the answered prayer or result! While I was preaching on divine health at a program in 2016, I told them emphatically that I can never fall sick. I was saying it jumping from one point to the other in the large auditorium, making my boast in the Lord. I was saying it loud and clear that it is impossible for me to fall sick. I even said that if any of my spiritual children learn that I ever fall sick, they should renounce me as their spiritual father. While I was jumping up and down, a voice whispered to me, “with the way you are saying this thing, I hope you won’t end up sick tomorrow. I hope you are not overdoing”. Right there on the pulpit, I froze for a moment. The voice was so real that I became scared! I quickly asked the Holy Spirit if it is true. And He replied Yoruba Language that “ohun to n se gangan niyen” meaning, speaking is what gets the job done. God told us that He would confirm whatever we say with our mouth: “As truly as I live, saith the LORD, as ye have spoken in mine ears, so will I do to you”- Numbers 14:28.

Jesus told us in Mark 11:23:

For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

In this passage, we see that it is speaking that actually gets the job done. Jesus said “...whosoever shall say...” Be it a young or old man or woman. Jesus did not teach this as a theory; He practiced it few verses earlier:

And on the morrow, when they were come from Bethany, he was hungry: And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find anything thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet. And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it. Mark 11:12-14.

He cursed the fig tree, and His disciples heard Him. Take note, His disciples heard Him! Jesus had to say it and made His disciples and the fig tree hear what he said because it is speaking that gets the job done! Speaking is the performance of the job. It is the word of your mouth that determines if you will be snared or shielded¹⁰. The scripture also says God confirmed the word of His servants and performed the counsel of His messengers - Isaiah 44:26. Until you say it, there is nothing for God to confirm. Mark 16:20 says, “the word of their mouth was confirmed with signs following”. When they said nothing, they got nothing and when they said something, they got something. The Bible records that “Jesus answered and said unto the fig tree no man eat the fruit of thee thereafter forever". For Jesus to have answered the tree, it meant that the tree had first spoken to Jesus! The tree told Him, "no fruit for you to eat" and Jesus also answered it. You can also speak to that area of your life that is mocking you right now! Give an answer to it. Tell poverty to leave you, tell tears to dry off. Go ahead and speak to it.

So far, I have shown you the six reasons for speaking. The fathers of faith spoke with this understanding. Everywhere in the world, "faithers" always speak with these reasons in mind. We speak to show that we believe and to show what we believe. We speak because we are living in a spiritual environment and we are not only speaking to God. We speak because it quickens our spirit. We speak because it deadens negative thoughts. We speak for the word to be well digested and lastly, we speak because it is speaking that actually gets the job done!

In subsequent chapters, I will explain the place of each word in the CDA combination. One beautiful thing about CDA is that it saves you the fruitless effort of repeating your prayer points. Every Bible student knows that repeating prayers cancel answers to prayer. And when you wonder what you should do when you haven't seen the result of your prayer requests? The answer is, use CDA. Those in the faith camp always use CDA to get quick answers to prayers, to conquer doubt, and many more. CDA is a tool that believers should use in all their daily affairs.

CHAPTER TWO

CONFESSION

And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word.... And blessed is she that believed; for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord. Luke 1:38, 45.

Confession means speaking to oneself. Speaking the word of God aloud, but only to yourself. No one may hear you, but you are assuring and reassuring yourself. Confession calms down the user of CDA, and it does much more than that. What does confession do in you?

1. It Makes You Believe

Mary said, “Let it be unto me according to your word”, and Elizabeth told her: “blessed is she that believe for there shall be a performance of those things that were told her from the Lord”. I love the way NLT presents it: “You are blessed because you believed that the Lord would do what he said”. Mary confessed the word of God aloud to herself, and she was acknowledged as a believer. Confessing rightly to yourself strengthens and prepares your spirit. As I have said earlier, the blessing of God is like rain. You are the one who will determine how much of it you want.

2. Confession Calms and Deadens Negative Thoughts

Confession is not thinking; it is speaking. It means saying something to yourself like: “I am blessed”, “I am healed”, “I am fruitful”. It is more beautiful saying these things when you don’t even look like it. While confessing, you are not saying it for people to hear, but there must be some sort of whispering when you are among people. It is not done within! When you are alone, you can speak it aloud. There is power in the fact that air is blown out of your mouth. In that air, there is saliva, in that saliva, there is life, in that life, there is light and in that light there is flesh. If you confess it often and sufficiently, the saliva will become so much that it will turn to a river in the spiritual realm and carry away your mountain.

Speaking it enough will kill negative thoughts and give you a place of dominion in destiny. You must confess aloud, bearing it in mind that you live in a spiritual environment. There are many people who need to hear you! The devil needs to hear, the angels need to hear you as well. Even the situation needs to hear. Even though confession is speaking to yourself, the spiritual world will hear you. The devil doesn't know whatever you are thinking in your heart, but as soon as you whisper it, it becomes audible to him. Can you confess right now? Say: I am whole! Say: I am healed! Say: I am blessed!

We had a teaching on healing on our online platform. One of our leaders woke up the following day with asthmatic crisis. She started confessing that she is whole in Jesus Name! She believed that by the stripes of Jesus she had been healed! She didn't become relieved immediately but by constant confession, she started vomiting out some substances and that was the end of asthma in her life. Another daughter of Zion was bitten by a big black scorpion on her head while she was sleeping; it was very close to her eyes. She woke up in the middle of the night with excruciating pains. It was in the middle of the night and even if she wanted to tie clothes around the venom there was no place to tie it. But she is a student of faith; she opened her Bible to Luke 10:19: "Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.” She kept confessing: “it shall by no means hurt me”. She said for the first few minutes while she was saying all that, she said it was as if her head was getting bigger. She kept confessing it and told her neighbours not to worry. After sleeping off, she woke up with a little weakness, but was already feeling better. By the end of the day, with the confession in her mouth, she was absolutely whole. Until she shared the testimony openly, no one knew anything had happened to her. That is what confession does for you. Confession gets the job done! As soon as Mary said let it be unto me according to your word, the angel blessed her.

3. Confession Aids Scriptural Meditation

We don't just confess wishful thoughts or desires; our confession must be based on the word of God. If you don't have the scriptures as backup, you are standing on a shaky ground, the wind of disbelief and the rain of doubt and symptoms will tear you down in no time. That is probably why it has not been working for you. The testimony I shared above was borne out of understanding and meditation in the scriptures. Confession is simply speaking the word of God to yourself. Many times, you have to open two to three scriptures, read them, digest them, meditate on them and begin to confess them accordingly. It is like rubbing a balm on your body.

I was in the bathroom brushing my teeth one day when I discovered that one of my molar teeth was shaking. I was shocked! I asked myself: ‘at what age?’ I switched to the spiritual world immediately. I saw the devil accusing me and the Judge was asking if I had any defence from the constitution that forbids my tooth to be removed. Right there in the bathroom, I quoted Matthew 10:30: But the very hairs of my head are all numbered. I must tell you that, at that I didn't mention the exact place it was in the Bible, but all that matters in the heaven's court is the understanding. If I had any doubt, I would go to open the Bible and read from there but that day, I only said the Scripture says He knows the number of hair on my head and I believe He knows the number of teeth in my mouth also and He won't allow any of it to fall because His word says: 'for he shall give his angels charge over me, they shall bear me up in their hands, lest I dash my foot against a stone'- Psalms 91:11-12. I also added that He cares the sparrows how much more my tooth. I was standing on three applicable scriptures which everyone in the courtroom including the devil was aware of. I said the devil was behind it because, God is behind every good things and the devil is behind every evil thing. Remove the devil and everything would be fine. Then, I confessed: "my tooth cannot fall off, it is not even shaking, it is intact"!

Few days later, my eyes were open to see a scriptural passage that addressed my teeth directly:

Thy teeth are like a flock of sheep that are even shorn, which came up from the washing; whereof every one bear twins, and none is barren among them. Songs of Solomon 4:2

I was thrilled because the more appropriate your reference is, the more your spirit is quickened and the faster you get the result. I confirmed it in two versions and confessed again (as I have been doing in the previous days). In less than 7 days, I was using the tooth to chew meat and bones before I even realized it.

Confession makes you believe, it deadens negative thoughts, and it aids scriptural meditation.

CHAPTER THREE

DECLARATION

Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompence of reward. Hebrews 10:35.

The second chemical in the CDA equation is Declaration. How do we declare? We command, we rebuke, and we claim. There is a big difference between requesting and commanding, assuring yourself, and rebuking. We command angels, we rebuke evil spirits, and we claim our rights or blessings. In the school of the spirit, when we tell you to keep declaring, it could take the form of commanding, rebuking or claiming. Believers are ignorantly used to the act of requesting for everything at every given time. For instance, it is very wrong to ask God to come and cast out evil spirits for you. That sounds like saying: 'God come and help me cast out this evil spirit'- no! There is no Scripture that says you should tell God to help you cast out an evil spirit. That's one of the reasons we began the School of Deliverance. The online interactive school is actually not only for those who want to get delivered but for those who want to know how to deal with spirits.

You are expected to rebuke evil spirits by yourself. Every time Jesus dealt with foul spirits, He rebuked them. We are also required to command angels. The Bible says that they are ministering spirits unto us. You are to also command human spirits to do your biddings. You are not to ask God to compel a person on your behalf or compel him to come to Christ, but you are to take possession of the spirit of the man and direct him. The Kingdom of heaven is a kingdom of systems, rules and patterns. You don't access the supernatural on your own terms; you go to access it on its own terms. There are keys and codes to everything. Being ignorant of these codes is what makes many people to pray amiss.

Dealing with Human Spirits

You must have seen movies where the spirit of a man is summoned to the high court of witches. You have also read in your Bible where the spirit of Joshua the High Priest was summoned in the spirit realm (Zechariah 3). You have also read how Saul summoned the spirit of dead Samuel. You also saw where Jesus called out to the spirit of Lazarus to come out with the body from the grave. The centurion had this understanding and told Jesus to speak to the spirit of his servant from where he was¹. The spirit of a man lives in a spiritual world and can pick any signal or words addressed to him. It's like calling a phone line. If ten mobile phones are placed on a table, it is the line that was called that will ring. In the same vein, you can place a call to the spirit of any man from anywhere in the world. Witches do this often, how much more we, believers! There is hierarchy in the spiritual realm, just as it is in the military, and they always submit. The Spirit of God is the first, followed by the regenerated spirit of man, the spirit of the devil, evil spirits and, lastly, the spirit of an unregenerated man. The devil has access to the spirit of a man who is not born again, and so do you.

Godhead (God the Father, God the Son and God the Spirit)

If you have an unbelieving family member who is close to you, they are in your territory of control. For instance, no man comes to my house or comes to stay under my roof and falls sick. If you come sick, you will return healed. I have marked my domain. You pray addressing your unborn- again close relative this way:

“Thank you Father for the authority you have given me to bind and lose in your Name. Your word says, ‘believe in the Lord Jesus and you will be saved, along with everyone in your household’- Acts 16:31. I claim the salvation of James Henry, my younger brother right now, in the name of Jesus because he is a member of my household. I rebuke every evil spirit holding you down into drunkenness and fornication in Jesus Name. I lose you from the prince of this world that has bound you in Jesus Name. I ask that your spirit is open and yield to the gospel in the Name of Jesus. I call for a messenger of the word to reach you and get you saved in Jesus Name”.

One thing you must understand here is that, the person may even appear worse after the prayer, but you must not lose your ground. Your duty is to keep DECLARING! You can shorten your declaration this way:

“I rebuke the evil spirit holding you bound in the Name of Jesus. I command your spirit to be receptive to the word of God and be born again”.

You can further reduce it to- “Henry James is saved in Jesus Name”. You can repeat that statement 100 times in a day. Take note that I didn’t say: “Henry James will be saved” but that “He is saved”.

When you are dealing with a man that is about to harm you, you can take possession in the spirit realm. When you also need a favour from a particular person, you can also get hold of it by directing their spirit. Once you have a biblical stand, you can take charge. I tell people that no one says NO to me. Even among those I am not popular with as a pastor and I rarely introduce myself as one. A sister was pressurized at her place of work till the point of giving up. She teaches and all she wanted was to be made a class teacher of another class. I told her to simply pray and command her boss. She did that immediately and the following day, the boss called her and directed her to the classroom she had mentioned in prayer the previous day.

One thing you must understand here is that behind every evil, there is a spiritual influence and behind every good, there is a spiritual influence. This influence can be directed into the spirit realm.

Claiming Spiritual Blessings

How many times have you asked God to please heal you or that you have said, "I know God will heal me", but have you ever been healed that way? I know the answer is no! Like I said in my book Prayer that Works, what believers do the most is praying and what we do the least is also praying. Many times, we pray amiss. The Scripture, in all simplicity, says He has blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ Jesus. Note the word "has". That word is only used in the present perfect tense. The Bible doesn't speak in the present or future tense, but in the present perfect tense. That is, it speaks in the received or concluded tense, not in a future tense. It is like that because what we are talking about happened over 2,000 years ago and it is still valid today! In another place, the Scripture says *by His stripes, you have been healed*². That also is in a present perfect sense. I love to say that it is in a perfected sense. Jesus also speaking says if you believe that you have received it and you can claim it, it will be yours³. In other words, if you believed that you have been healed and you can declare it, healing will be yours. If you believe that you have been blessed and you can always declare that you have been blessed, it will be yours.

In essence, your healing, your miracle, your child and your job are not with God in heaven, they are with you here on earth. The only person that may be blocking your access to it is the defeated foe, the devil, because he is the prince of this world. And all you have to do is to rebuke the devil and claim the blessings. You can declare this way: "I rebuke the devil from my health in Jesus Name. I rebuke short sightedness and claim my perfect sight in Jesus Name" (be very specific). Then it becomes yours. You can repeat the declaration as much as you want, you are still in line.

You Must Declare Aloud

Whether you are claiming or rebuking or commanding, it must be aloud! You can't treat declaration the way you treat confession. For instance, you can't command an evil spirit while you are whispering or confessing to yourself. You can't claim your rights from the devil while speaking within yourself; you have to say it aloud. If you are in a place where you cannot say it loud, you can whisper it, but ensure that the whispering comes with the force of declaration, not an assurance. If I get to the bathroom in the morning and I discover a spot or a swelling (we all discover different things in the bathroom once in a while), at times, it could even be a boil or like, my shaky tooth. What I will do is to make declarations against it.

Why Must We Declare

1. You declare for people to hear.

While no one may hear your confession, people need to hear your declaration. When Jesus cursed the fig tree, the Bible added that 'and his disciples heard Him'. It is okay for many of us to speak when no one is around us. But when people are around, we become fearful. The devil will make you wonder if it will work. For instance, you want to command it to stop raining, but you are careful of what your friends will say if it does not stop raining. CDA is a combined dose; you can't say I only want to use confession, and not use everything. You must grow up!

And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it. Mark 11:14

Somebody must hear you. I told you about my tooth earlier. During that period, I told my wife that my tooth was shaking but it's now strong. Meanwhile, the tooth was still shaky; I couldn't even use it to chew rice. She asked me the following day about the tooth that was shaky, I told her to remember that I didn't say it is shaky; I said it was shaky (past tense) and that it was already strong. Meanwhile, it was still shaky at the time she asked!

2. Declaration Demands Boldness

Can you see that declaration requires boldness? But it is good! That's what gets the job done. It shows that you believe! In Luke 9:42, Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit out aloud in the hearing of the evil spirit and the people standing by.

And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.

When you declare boldly, human beings and demons hear you.

2. You Declare to Kill and to Make Alive

In the story of the creation, God wasn't thinking of the creation. He had done that earlier. He came to the scene and declared, let there be light and there was light- Genesis 1:3. Don't forget that we have the same Spirit of faith and the Spirit of faith is a speaking spirit. Abraham believed the One who called the things that were not as though they were⁴. And the visible things were created by invisible words of the mouth. You are in the capacity of God to create things with your mouth. The Scripture says death and life are in the power of the tongue⁵ and those who understand it will benefit from it. You can use your word to create your world. Jesus also says you should bind and loose⁶, open and close with your tongues.

3. We Declare into the Spiritual Environment

I read of a man who overcame procrastination and waste of time. He told his employees to shout 'back to work' forty times every morning. They would stand together and shout: 'Back to work', 'back to work' forty times every day. Many of the staff confessed that it really helped them to always get back to their tasks. They said they continued to use it even after leaving the company. I have been using it myself. I may get a little distracted from my work but all of a sudden I will shout BACK TO WORK! If I am still feeling reluctant to get back to work, I will repeat that several times. Somehow, my body will respond and get back to work. That is a psychological effect of the power of declaration, how much more the effect it has in the spiritual world. When we declare, God is reminded of His words and promises, evil spirits take caution and draw back, spirits of men submit and angels do our biddings. But a closed mouth is a closed destiny. Even witches speak to the thin air and get results.

4. Declaration Gives Faith

If you can speak enough for people to hear you, your faith becomes built up. At first, you will be filled with doubt and fear. I have been there too. Every student of faith has been there, but we overcame it. Elizabeth told Mary: 'blessed is she that believes for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord'. Whatever the Lord has spoken to you, there shall be a performance of it! You may have no angel speaking the word of God to you, but you can read it to yourself and God is faithful to back it up. As you read it, you have a level of faith, when you confess it, you have a high level of faith but when you declare it, you have a higher level of faith and performance will follow it.

5. Declaration Builds Confidence

Declaring the word of God in the received sense to yourself doesn't kill your morale or confidence, rather, it gives you confidence. It is not declaring it that kills your confidence. When someone asks you: "how was the exam?" Why will you just say 'fine', even when you know it was tough? Tell the person, 'it is either I have A or B in that course'. When you say that, you are in line with the word of God. I had an experience along this line long ago when I was in the university. I finished an exam and I was about to submit an almost empty paper. I rarely pray over my exams, I only give thanks but that day, I was compelled to pray because I knew that I didn't get the answers correctly despite my preparation. I switched to the spiritual world and claimed distinction in the exam. The Judge asked me, "what is the Biblical reference that allows you to claim such on a paper where you didn't answer correctly?" I thought for a moment and the Spirit of God helped me to get a good one. ⁷I answered that Adam named all the animals and it was the names he called them that they bear from that time till now, so I called my answer script, distinction! That was all. I had distinction in that course.

Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompence of reward. Hebrews 10:35.

Bold declaration generates faith, and that faith gives you confidence and confidence has a whole lot of reward. And what is the reward? It delivers to you that which you have just declared. Many times when you have prayed and you kept repeating the prayer because you have not seen the result, God was only expecting you to use CDA. I usually say- CDA your prayers (that is, apply CDA in all your prayers)s. In the school of healing, we say- use CDA capsule or CDA formula. When you are in doubt or your answer refuses to show up, we say- keep confessing, keep declaring and keep announcing. You can repeat it as many times as you want once you make your statement in the received sense.

There was a time I was to pay my school fees in the university. The deadline was fast approaching, and I had not paid. I was talking to someone and she said, 'you will pay late fee'. I replied immediately as though it was a reflex action and said: 'I will never pay late fee'. She looked at my face with shock and said 'sorry'. She saw the aggression on my face. My spirit repels negativity of any kind, including medical reports. I determine what happens in my world, not anything or anyone. You must carry your CDA around like a handbag. There are people who go about with bags of drugs, some call it their life saver. Make CDA your own life saver today, that you must take along to wherever you are going and apply it whenever you need it. In times of fear, the Bible says: "But David encouraged himself in the Lord his God"- 1 Samuel 30:6. He was in a precarious situation, he had lost everything and was about to lose his life in the hands of his own men. But he started with confession, encouraging himself in the Lord, then declared to his men to arise and recover all. David was anointed as a king, but he became a fugitive. While he was confessing, declaring and announcing, not just making positive confession, he stood on the word of God. What you say is what you see. The way to fight the good fight of faith is CDA.

CHAPTER FOUR

ANNOUNCEMENT

What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the housetops.

Mathew 10:27

Announcement is simply broadcasting your faith. It is when you take a drastic and bold step to let people know what you stand for. I often say that CDA is both preventive and curative. You don't have to wait till the day of trouble to use CDA. CDA can be used as vaccine or immunization against diseases. When you are very fine, you should let people know what you stand for. Let them know that you believe you can never be sick.

CDA is also curative. I started declaring that I can never fall sick at a time when I was only one foot away from sickness. I started announcing that I can never be poor when in fact, poverty was my next door neighbour. When you don't even have so much on you, you should let people know that you can never be poor, you can never beg and you can never become stranded. While you are yet to write your exams, start broadcasting your faith and let people know that there is no paper that you are going to fail. When you get to school as a fresher, tell them your least grade would be a 'C'. Everyone around me knows what I stand for. If you are reading my book for the first time, you know what I stand for. My spiritual children are just like me, people know where they belong as far as faith is concerned. CDA is curative. When you are in that situation, announce that you are out. CDA is preventive. Even when you are not in that situation, announce that it can never happen to you. I have spent some years in the ministry, and no demonic arrow has ever come into my body. I tell people that I can never be a victim of demonic arrow. One of my daughters asked why I say that. The Scripture says no weapon that is formed against me shall prosper- Isaiah 54:17. It didn't say no weapon shot against me. No! It says no weapon being formed. That is, as they were trying to prepare it, they will be unable to get it prepared. So they have nothing to shoot!

Announcement

Announcement is making boast of the word of God. Jesus says:

What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the housetops. Mathew 10:27

What does that passage mean? Jesus said whatever you read from my word in the secret, broadcast it in the open and that which I have whispered into your ears, go to the rooftop, carry a loud speaker and announce it to everyone. Anytime I stand on the altar, you can't hear me say the country is bad or that I don't have money or that this thing will go worse for me. Never! I make loud claim of what I stand for. I know that Nigeria is not going to swallow me up. I know that the economic meltdown is not going to hit me- I know! I know that I'm not going to take a dose of drug till I die, I know! I know I'm not going to beg, I know! I know that no object will pierce through my body for surgery, I know! And of course the word says 'circumcision or no circumcision'- Colossians 3:11 (either you cut the body or not) that is, I don't even need the cutting of my body or any healing balm, I am already healed by His own circumcision. By the severe piercing that went through his body and the surgery that was performed on Him, I have been made whole! Hallelujah!

There was a woman who shared a testimony with me. Her son was hit by a stick in the eyes and he couldn't see. The doctors said only surgery could rescue the boy but when I prayed with her, she said she remember me saying "let the God of all flesh perform this surgery". I told her if God is the God of all flesh, He can work on all flesh. The boy's sight was restored to the glory of God. You see, I know what I know! I know that I will never be barren! I know that I am going to have a godly home and that we are going to live in peace and joy. I know that all my children will be godly and not rebels. They will love God and work with him. One fact about announcement is that you don't say I am rich because you have a hundred thousand dollars in your account but you say you are rich because you know you are!

You may want to ask if I am a man. Yes, I am and I don't need to double check that. You may want to ask if I can ever fall sick. My dear, I can't. It is impossible. It is impossible for angels to fall sick and impossible for men to become pregnant. It is impossible for a dead dog to bark. It is impossible for the sickness Jesus has taken away to return to my body. That is not possible. We don't announce based on what we see but we act based on the word we are told in the secret place from the word of God. In the Gospel, Jesus went back and forth announcing that he is the light, the way, the truth and the life. Though, He was known as a Jewish carpenter boy but He announced that He is God because He is. No one named John, as John the Beloved, he announced it by himself and he became it! You may not look like it now, but it doesn't matter- announce it!

Announcement is When You Make Boast of the Word of GOD

As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia. 2 Corinthians 11:10

By the principle of faith, you are free to make boast. Have I sounded boastful to you so far? I have not fallen sick in over six years. I have not been down for a second. Before I started this ministry at all and when we were just starting, I told people we are going to fly private jets because the ministry the Lord is giving to us is going to be so big that to take commercial airplanes will slow us down. When I heard that Kenneth Copeland said America airline services only about 45 airports but their own airplanes service up to hundred airports (that was many years ago), I realize that you can't meet up on some schedules with commercial airlines. Owning a Private jet is like owning a power bike in Lagos. If you live in Lagos, you will understand. You must be able to make boast of what you believe; people must say that you are boastful.

Announcing or applying CDA as a whole is offensive; it makes people get offended by you. By the reason of my boastful nature, many people have been offended to give to our ministry. I told them we don't beg or have a financial backup anywhere. I always announce that we don't write appeals for fund and we will never do that. With that, those who have been waiting for us to ask have never been able to give. With the way I say I can never be poor, some are offended. Just because I say I have never fallen sick in years and that I will never fall sick, some people are even offended.

I have told you what your speaking does. When you make boast in the word of God, it shows that you really believe. Don't forget that we are living in a spiritual environment where several elements and spirits live. I have said earlier that announcement is not only used to cure or to tell people what you are physically; it is also highly preventive. You can use it ahead. When you are well, announce that you can never fall sick. When you are yet to write an exam, tell people you can never fail. When you are about to start an enterprise, tell people how big it will turn out. When we started the ministry, people felt that we should grow little by little but in few years, we already have members and centres abroad.

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN YOU ANNOUNCE

1. God Speaks for Himself

The devil may want to tell you that what you are saying will land you in trouble, but I am glad to tell you that announcing makes God to speak for Himself. The Bible says that God will not leave Himself without a witness- Acts 14:17, once you make a boast of Him, He will send a witness to you. Jesus states that whosoever is ashamed of me and my word on earth; I will be ashamed of him in the presence of my Father on heaven. NLT was very precise:

Everyone who acknowledges me publicly here on earth, I will also acknowledge before my Father in heaven. But everyone who denies me here on earth, I will also deny before my Father in heaven.

Mathew 10:32-33

You are on earth and Jesus is in heaven, the moment you are boastful, courageous and proud of the word Jesus Christ has told you on earth, Jesus will tell His Father- ‘that is my boy’ or ‘that is my girl’, we must bear him witness. If you are boastful of His word on prosperity in the midst of an economic crisis, He will confirm it with a witness. Jesus sent

His disciples out in the book of Mark 16:20. The Scripture attested that the Lord went with them confirming the word with signs following. Another beautiful scripture says, “He that confirmeth the word of his servant and performeth the counsel of his messengers”- Isaiah 44:26. Whatever the old prophets said no matter how impossible it looked, they were confirmed. My dear, you are not alone. You have a backup. The more I say that I can never be sick, the more I get thumbs up from Jesus in heaven! David Oyedepo Jnr said boldness is a product of what you know and who you have.

There is something about me; you cannot find negative people around me. When I’m told something will end tomorrow, I tell them the hours between today and tomorrow is too much for God to act. I have seen Him act at different times. At the time God gave me the prosperity mandate, I began to preach it and declare that I am blessed to the extent that members began to look up to me for financial help. Even though at those times, I didn’t even have a suit. I told my fiancée (now wife) what people expected of me. She said, “they don’t even observe that you have been wearing only a pair of shoe”. Up till that moment, I didn’t even know I only had a pair of shoe. I already saw myself as a very blessed man with many shoes. Today, I can’t remember the last time I paid for a shoe but I don’t lack shoes. I have even given out many shoes.

2. It Makes Us Offensive, but the Victory is very Loud

Like I said earlier, CDA is offensive, most especially when you announce. Announcing drags you away from your comfort zone! Many believers are defensive but announcement makes you offensive. When you announce, you provoke the devil. The Bible clearly says that persecution and tribulation will arise because of the word- Mathew 13:20-21. Two men decided to announce their stand against sickness and poverty. Then the devil arose and fought against them. The two of them began to have symptoms of malaria with cough and headache. One eventually died but the second, kept on rebuking the symptoms and refused to take them for diseases. The story I just narrated is in the Bible:

Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will shew you to whom he is like: He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock. But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that house was great. Luke 6:48-49

After reading this book, you must set out to put it into practice and be ready to face and conquer the devil. You don't need to get scared and say you don't want to arouse the devil. Whether or not you charge at him, he will not spare you anyway. He will attack you with the exact things you are afraid of just as he did to Job¹. He was the one that put the fear into you in the first place. So, contend with the devil before he contends with you:

Rise ye up, take your journey, and pass over the river Arnon: behold, I have given into thine hand Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land: begin to possess it, and contend with him in battle. Deut. 2:24

The moment I finished reading the book that marked the beginning of my no drug, no medication, no sickness journey, the devil decided to attack me with typhoid, but I overcame to the glory of God. Since then, I have never fallen sick. If I didn't charge at him back then, he would have put me on the hospital bed several times. David was offensive! The lions and the bears only wanted to take a kid and not a big sheep, but he chased them. No one asked him to fight Goliath. It was not even his business, but he did and became the hero. He killed Goliath before Goliath could wipe away his brothers and the entire nation. David would have become a slave and not a king if he hadn't fought. He was offensive.

Announcement must be offensive. You must offend the prince and principalities of this world, witches and wizards, as well as negative people around you. Announcement makes proof of the spirit of faith, which is a speaking spirit. It also demonstrates a high confidence in God, which results in great reward.

CHAPTER FIVE

STATEMENT OF FAITH

So mightily grew the word of God and it prevailed- Acts 19:20

In practising CDA, you must have a statement of faith. What is a statement of faith? A Statement of Faith is your weaponized word borne out of concrete biblical understanding, conviction or prophecy. Statement of faith is what you quickly shoot at the devil, fear, symptoms, doubt, and others. You may have a variety of them. It could be the one you derived from this book or the one you fashioned yourself. For instance, you have heard me say, I can never be sick severally in this book. That is my statement of faith against illness. To another person, it could be I am strong! This statement is not just said for the fun of it. It must have its deep root in the word of God. It is the Bible that says let the weak say “I am strong!”¹ It is not the word of any man. It may seem like a joke to others but to you, it means a lot because you have an understanding and a conviction in the scriptural passage.

Another thing about a statement of faith is that it is borne out of revelation. I have different statements of faith borne out of revelation for every area of life; prosperity, security, child-raising, ministry, and so on. I read of a great man of God who, at a point, was losing his church members to sickness. He became very worried and on a certain day, he was reading the scripture when he stumbled upon Acts 10:38 where the Scripture says: “how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with Him”. That was not the first time he saw that passage, but on that day, it was as if a scale fell off his eyes.

From that day, he didn't lose any of his members again to diseases. Kenneth Hagin said they never took their children to the hospital because the word says: "children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. Honour thy father and mother; (which is the first commandment with promise) That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth"- Ephesians 6:1-3. He said days spent in the hospital are not good or well days. They only needed to make sure their children obeyed them according to that revelation. Kenneth Hagin was sick for the first 16 years of his life and was bedridden for about 2years. But one day, he opened to Mark 11:24 and got his healing.

Revelation is not hard to come by. Once you come across a Bible passage or gain an understanding in a book like this that shines light upon your heart, it is enough. Once you believe it, you can have it. Your own could be- I can never be sick or I can never have pains (menstrual pains included) because Jesus had borne all your pains. Just the way I discovered the Bible passage that addressed teeth and saved my shaky tooth, you can search for yours too. For example, you can type on Google: "Bible passages that talk about weight loss". You can also ask from fellow faithers. Once you coin or copy a statement of faith, you are good to go. That is your CDA ballistic missile. You can use it for confession, declaration and announcement. Statement of faith must never be in the future tense. It is usually in the received sense, like 'I can never die young'.

More Benefits of CDA

1. It avoids repetition

This is your only way out of repetitive prayers. When you see that your prayer is yet to be answered, what do you do? Apply CDA. When things are not going the way you want, what do you do? Apply CDA. When you are still expecting your answer and you are tempted to repeat your prayer points, keep repeating your statement of faith, which demonstrates that you already have it. When doubt, fear and disbelief sets in, what do you use? It is CDA.

2. CDA doesn't mean that you believe after seeing the result, but you believe before seeing the result with your natural eyes.

That is why your statement of faith must always be in the past perfect tense and not in the future tense. You can't say, "I know I will be healed" No! God already healed on the cross over 2,000 years ago. The right statement is "I am healed."

MY PERSONAL EXPERIENCE WITH CDA

If you pay attention to this testimony, it is a summary of all I have written and all I have to say in this piece on CDA.

1. She was Healed of Asthma.

Few years ago, I was a young Scripture Union missionary (we call it School worker or ATS). I worked among students in secondary school fellowships. Every time I visited them, there was always a sick student, but I was always sad because I couldn't even pray for them to be healed. One faithful night, I told God that we had a score to settle. He must give me the healing anointing by all means so I can use it to heal the students. The Holy Spirit called out to me and advised that I should sleep and when I wake, I should look for a book on healing and read. Few days after, I got a book titled Healing Anointing by Kenneth Hagin. Actually, I was so disappointed in the book that before I finished reading it, I vowed never to read Hagin's book again. I was expecting him to talk about power, fire and, at the least, anointing. But all he said from the front page till the last page was all about faith. I was pissed-off, but I managed to finish reading the book. At the end, I gained some understanding, conviction and revelation and I couldn't wait to put them into practice.

An opportunity came in less than seven days after I read the book; I was in a certain school in Ibadan. I saw a young girl that was moody. I approached her and she told me she was tired of living because she was asthmatic. As soon as I heard that, I felt like jumping. I opened the Bible and prayed with her, just as Kenneth Hagin had explained. She said amen and went home. But I had a minor problem, and it was doubt. You know that voice, "what if she isn't healed". That voice kept ringing in my ears, but I had an antidote for it which was CDA. I started saying confessing: "Ololade Badmus is healed of asthma in Jesus name", (that's not her actual name, I had asked of her full name at the time I prayed with her). I kept repeating my statement of faith as long as the doubt kept coming to me. On the first day, I had to repeat that statement of faith for about 200 times. By the following day, the voice of doubt had reduced but I still had to counter it with the statement of faith. The Bible says "so mightily grew the word of God and it prevailed"- Acts 19:20. If there is a big mountain before you, you need to speak the word of faith till it grows and overshadows that mountain like a tree sprouting out of the ground. To cut the story short, I summoned the courage to ask her after a few months and told me that she is totally healed. Since then, I have prayed for many asthmatic patients and they are totally healed to the glory of God.

2. It Worked for Me also

It is one thing to have the anointing to heal the sick, and it is another thing to have the knowledge to get healing for yourself. You might have heard of men of God who healed many diseases but were sick themselves. In the year 2014, I made researched on living without drugs. And Kenneth Hagin came in handy again. I got his book: Healing Bible Study Course. It was like a textbook and I studied it diligently. As soon as I was done with it, I became sick of malaria and typhoid. I had treated it twice in the previous years, so I knew it when it came. I refused to take drugs, and it came to a point where I was lying flat on my back. That was when I started my personal journey of the application of CDA.

At first, my neighbour came to check on me. They were a couple and ministers in the Scripture Union as well. When the wife checked my temperature, it was very high, and she was alarmed and insisted that I use drugs after they pray for me. At that moment, I saw them as anti-faith people, but they started praying, anyway. The Spirit of God asked me if I believed in their prayers or not. He knew I did not, and I also got the message so, I said "I do". Then, He told me to say a believing amen if I really believed. I changed my attitude and started saying a believing amen to their prayers. As soon as they finished praying, the Holy Spirit asked if I believed that I was healed, I said yes then He said, healed people don't lie down, they are up and doing so, stand up! As soon as I stood, the wife touched my body and screamed! She said my temperature had gone down and that I would not need drugs again. Note that my temperature did not change until I stood up. It is important that you don't only speak your CDA but you must also act it.

While I was standing, I was asked why I was standing. I ought to declare to them that it was because I was healed but my faith wasn't strong enough to make bold declarations, so I excused myself to urinate. I went out and before I came in, they had left. The high temperature was gone but I started shivering all over. I was back on my back. At that moment, I took CDA seriously. I checked for what we call 'Healing Scriptures'. I typed on Google: 100 Bible passages on healing. It brought results and I gave a friend to read them to my hearing. As he was reading, there were beautiful passages that stood out significantly to me. They were about five but I love 1 Peter 2:4 and Psalm 103:1-3 the most. The amplified version placed emphasis on the perfect tense of 1 Peter 2:4:

He personally carried our sins in His body on the cross [willingly offering Himself on it, as on an altar of sacrifice], so that we might die to sin [becoming immune from the penalty and power of sin] and live for righteousness; for by His wounds you [who believe] have been healed.

So, I coined my CDA from it: 'by His stripes I have been healed'. Psalm 103:1-3 is also my favourite till date:

Bless the LORD, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name. Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases.

He healeth all my diseases (past, present and future). I kept repeating those scriptures and all the feelings were falling off bit by bit. I also acted in faith by requesting for food when I had no appetite. As I felt better, I took higher steps of faith. It took five days in all before I fully recovered. When you apply CDA to some situations, you get instant results and in some you will get a progressive development. It may seem worse at first but with persistence, you will emerge a victor.

CDA is a great weapon that can work for you wherever, whenever and for whatever (WWW). CDA can guarantee your health, prosperity, security and protection. I challenge you to keep confessing, declaring and announcing. You must keep rebuking evil spirits, claim your spiritual blessings and command angels. Your actions must not antagonize your words. Don't speak prosperity and act pitiful. Don't speak health and act sickly. Don't forget that it is speaking it that gets the job done. CDA is both preventive and curative. Fight off the symptoms as soon as you begin to feel it and get on the offensive with the devil. We live perpetually in a spiritual environment and are surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses. God is there as the Judge of all. Once you use His words, He cannot deny Himself: If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself. 2Timothy 2:13.

You should go over all the testimonies and strengthen your faith. I look forward to your own testimony because CDA always works.

CHAPTER SIX

SPEAKING RIGHT

And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her. Luke 1:38

In part one, I explained that with the CDA approach, we speak. We speak because it is speaking that does the job. We have ample examples of people who spoke in the Bible and the attendant results they got. The Bible also assures us that we have the same Spirit with those people. Our fathers in the faith spoke and we, having the same spirit of faith must speak as well. Speaking is inherent because the power of life and death is in your tongue.

Proverbs 18:21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.

With CDA, we confess, we declare, and we announce. We must remember that we live in a spiritual environment. When we speak or pray, we are not only addressing God, we're addressing other spiritual elements. There are spirits: the 24 elders, just men made perfect, angels, Cherubim and Seraphim, spirit of mortal men, demonic spirits and even the devil itself.

Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us. Hebrews 12:1

The Bible says we are surrounded with a cloud of witnesses. There are a lot of beings in the spiritual realm even more than the physical realm that needs to hear what we say and they can't hear us until we speak aloud.

Speaking quickens your spirit; it deadens negative thoughts and makes the word of God well digested in you. It gets the work done and controls your lifestyle.

You can't speak right without acting right. If peradventure, you speak right but you think and act wrongly, there's a way your speaking will correct your belief and action and bring you back on to the right course.

If you speak enough, you will act it.

If you keep saying: "I can never be poor" while the reality of your red bank account is staring right at you, at first, your mind will not agree with you. Your mind will keep taking you back to your dire financial status, but it's just a matter of time before your speech convinces your mind. Then, you will begin to think rich and act rich and before you know it, you will become rich.

Have you ever watched a movie or listen to a song and it's not interesting to you but by the time you listened to it a second or third time, it starts to interest you? In the same vein, when you speak right and your mind is not aligning with it at first, the more you keep at it, you will realize that your mind has come to terms with it.

Of course, there are down moments where it would seem as if you relapsed in your thought and even in your actions but if you keep speaking right, it will change your mood and uplift your countenance. For example, if you keep confessing that you can't be barren and that you are fruitful, your action will begin to speak joy rather than breaking down in worry and tears always.

After the encounter with Eli, Hannah's countenance changed and she ate her food with gladness. She believed the prophet's word; she confessed it to herself and set her heart on it. She said to herself: "Let it be unto me according to your word" She didn't doubt it. She became relaxed after saying those words to herself and she got up to have her meal.

And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her. Luke 1:38

What Hannah said affected her action. If your CDA has not affected your thought and outward appearance (action), it means you aren't saying it enough.

Again, you don't even have to be utterly convinced in your mind before you say it, you just have to believe it in your heart (spirit) and begin to proclaim. If you believe that Scripture is spoken by God and you desire what you see in the word and you believe God can make it happen in your life, that is a good point to start. It is enough reason and enough faith to trigger you into speaking.

I always say that you can't be saying: "I can never be poor" and sleep all day. One day, the CDA you keep confessing will stare at you on the face and give you some slap that will make you jump up and get to work. When you SPEAK RIGHT, YOU WILL THINK RIGHT AND YOU WILL LIVE RIGHT.

CHAPTER SEVEN

WHY CDA IS NOT WORKING FOR YOU

The word is not the problem. CDA is not the problem, but the root and the foundation. Ife Adetona

In this chapter, I am going to discuss why CDA is not working for some people. Even though they confess right with deep conviction in their heart and act right, it seems not to yield the right result for them.

What are you saying?

CDA involves speaking but remember, anybody can say: “I can never be poor”, “I am strong”, “I can never fall sick”, “I am fruitful” and many more beautiful confessions but their speech may be very light with little or no weight. For CDA to work for you, your speech must carry weight.

Luke 6:48-49

48 He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock.

49 But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that house was great.

Here, we see the analogy of two buildings. Those two buildings might have been beside each other and have the same structure. But when the wind came, it didn't even shake one but collapsed the other. The same building, the same environment, the same wind but different results.

Whenever anyone complains of CDA not working for them, then definitely something is missing. It works for me but it doesn't work for them. When a thing works for other people but it doesn't work for you then, you should know that you are definitely missing it somewhere. The situation can be likened to you not taking your tablets according to the doctors' prescription then return to lament that the tablet is not working. The problem is not with the tablet but your application.

When I say I can never be sick, I didn't just pick up those words and say them. There is a foundation for that declaration. Just as people see the building and not the foundation as it is deep down, you can only hear my confession but you don't see the foundation that I build it upon. So, if all you do is to confess just because you see me confess, then your confession is very weak and when the wind of sickness comes, your faith confession may come crashing down while my own stands.

Imagine two people who claim that they cannot be infected by diseases. One has received immunization while the other has not. What do you think would happen when the wind of the diseases blows on the two of them. It is just that same way with our CDA.

Nothing finishes in my house. Food items don't finish in my house. The other time somebody said it that a particular foodstuff- Semo flour has finished, I told her that it cannot be. She was amazed at my response. She insisted that it has finished because I was sounding as if she doesn't know what she was saying. So, I told her to go bring the basin. When she brought it, I told her to open it. There was still a very little flour not even up to a teaspoon in the basin. I asked her: what is that? She said Semo flour. I told her: so it is not finished. We had some guests in the living room at that time and so they all burst into laughter. The following day, we had an overflow of Semo flour in the house.

I could put that testimony in this book and you read it and decided to practice the same thing in your house. You can go home and start telling everybody that foodstuff never finishes in your house but the next day, you will sleep in hunger and then, you would say CDA doesn't work. The problem is not in the CDA but your CDA has no root.

The declaration I made that day was deeply rooted and founded on the word of God that says: you shall serve the Lord your God and I (God) shall bless your bread and water. Everybody in my house that day saw the declaration and the effect it produced but no one saw the root and foundation of my declaration.

Exodus 23:25 And ye shall serve the LORD your God, and he shall bless thy bread, and thy water; and I will take sickness away from the midst of thee.

If a believer's declaration is built on a sandy foundation just as that house in Luke that was built on the sand, when the wind of worry, sickness and lack comes, it will come falling like a pack of cards. But when it is built on the solid rock of knowledge and understanding of the word, it will stand the test of time.

Rootless Seeds

Coming to mind also is the parable of the Sower in Luke 8:3-9.

3He told many sto-ries in the form of para-bles, such as this one:
“Lis-ten! A farmer went out to plant some seeds.

4As he scat-tered them across his field, some seeds fell on a footpath, and the birds came and ate them.

5Other seeds fell on shallow soil with underlying rock. The seeds sprouted quickly because the soil was shal-low.

6But the plants soon wilted under the hot sun, and since they didn't have deep roots, they died.

7Other seeds fell among thorns that grew up and choked out the tender plants.

8Still oth-er seeds fell on fertile soil, and they produced a crop that was thirty, sixty, and even a hundred times as much as had been planted!

9Anyone with ears to hear should lis-ten and under-stand

Luke 8:3-9

Some seeds fell on a footpath, and the birds came and ate them.

Here, Jesus described four categories of seed. First are the ones that fell by the wayside. This represents believers who hear a testimony or the confession of faith of another believer and disregard it as impossible just as some people have been refuting my declaration of I can never fall sick for eight years.

Other seeds fell on shallow soil with underlying rock. The seeds sprouted quickly because the soil was shallow.

Another category of believers are the ones that fell on the rock. This type of believer heard the confession of faith and testimony of others and leaped with excitement that they were going to have the same result in their lives. They go everywhere to declare that they cannot fall sick or that they cannot lack but because there is no foundation or root, in the face of a little challenges, their faith come crashing down. I remember a neighbour that was having difficulty having a child for six years. Finally, the Lord answered her prayer and was pregnant. In few months, she lost the pregnancy. The doctor revealed that the reason was because she had a weak womb and so when she has the next pregnancy, they will admit her for many months to monitor and also to tie up her womb. She eventually got pregnant again and when it was time to go to the hospital for admission, she said she won't go. Her excuse was: "after all, we have heard testimonies of people who had similar situation and were able to carry the baby for 9 months without going to the hospital". Eventually, the baby came down and damaged her womb severely.

You feel pity for her isn't it? She knew the testimony of others but she didn't know the foundation on which that testimony was laid. A foundationless CDA is not more than mere wishes.

Right from the inception of our ministry, we usually say: "we are many". Even when we were very few in number, we still say that: "we are many". We are not just wishing or hoping; that confession has a root. The root is in Isaiah 2:2-3 and other scriptures of the Bible.

Isaiah 2:2-3

2 And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the LORD'S house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it. note

3 And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

Other seeds fell among thorns that grew up and choked out the tender plants.

There is another category of seed that fell among the thorns. They are doing so well in the soil but the Bible says: “persecution arise because of the word”. Your confession, declaration and announcement have the capacity to attract persecution and trials on their own. So, if it is not well rooted, it will be choked.

Mathew 13:21 Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended.

I am not trying to scare you or to tell you that it is hard to make CDA work. Rather, I am showing you why it is not working for some and at the same time, showing you what to do to make it work for you with ease.

The last category of seed fell on a fertile land and the result was eminent. The seed is not the problem. The word is not the problem. CDA is not the problem, but the root and the foundation.

CHAPTER EIGHT

REVELATION

So mightily grew the word of God and it prevailed! Acts 19:20

The letter kills but the Spirit gives life (2 Corinthians 3:6). The word that I speak on to you, they are spirit and life (John 6:63).

Faith comes by hearing, hearing by the word of faith. When we confess, when we declare, when we announce, what we are saying are not letters but spirit. Until your confession goes beyond letters, it will yield no result. The Bible says your faith will come alive by hearing, hearing by the word of faith. There are two “hearings” here. The first is the letter, the second is the spirit. The spirit version of the word is what we call Rhema.

A person can say “I can never fall sick” as a mere wish. To another, it is a prayer point or just logos (letter), and yet to another it is a revelation. It is those for whom it is a revelation that will receive the reward. You can call it Rhema, Revelation or the revealed word. This is what you must speak.

So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed. Acts 19:20.

You can't speak revelation or the revealed word concerning a sickness and it won't dissipate. You can't speak it concerning an issue and things will not change. The revealed word will come from a point of conviction and it will affect your action and your mood.

In the part one of this book, I defined statement of faith which is also your CDA confession as your weaponized word borne out of concrete biblical understanding, a prophecy, or conviction. Biblical understanding, prophecy and conviction can be summed in one word: revealed word.

PERSONAL REVEALED WORD

I have a daughter who was getting engaged at the age of 28. When she was about to get engaged, I told her that: "of all the ladies of your age that I know who are yet to get engaged, you are the only one I've seen who is well settled and relaxed all through their waiting period". Others would have been bothered and distressed. I would have to console and counsel them every day.

I have a number of people like that whom I had to encourage everyday till God answered them. So I asked her: "what is your secret?" "How were you able to cope?" She then replied and narrated an incident that occurred when her younger sister was getting married years ago and she was downcast. The Lord showed her a scripture which says: "none shall lack their mate" and that was the turning point for her. When she showed me that scripture in Isaiah 34:16, I couldn't relate it to marital settlement, but the word came to her as a revelation.

Seek ye out of the book of the LORD, and read: no one of these shall fail, NONE SHALL WANT HER MATE: for my mouth it hath commanded, and his spirit it hath gathered them. Isaiah 34:16

She saw herself and the promise of God in that scripture. Hence, anytime she wants to get worried, she kept reminding herself of what God said to her. She wasn't shaking all through her years of singleness because of her conviction. In spite the wind of worry and persecutions from parents as well as intimidation from peers, she was unshaken. Her confession was deeply rooted on a revelation that came to her from the scriptures.

At first look, I didn't see any revelation related to marital settlement in the passage. All I could see was the context- the letter. That is because, it wasn't my revelation. It was her revelation. Her personal revealed word!

I was sharing this testimony at a programme. A sister that was there told me that was the same passage where she got her revelation from. She was surprised that I said I didn't see a marital related revelation from that scripture at first. This sister had a child already. Generally and especially in this part of the world, you can get away if you are a man who already had a child with another woman. You could easily get engaged and married. But for a lady, it is hard. Yet, this sister got a God-fearing brother to propose to her. I won't say she is lucky. She is a bundle of blessing to any man that marries her and this has nothing to do with money.

My point is that: as seemingly difficult her situation was, CDA borne out of a personal revelation worked for her and settled her martially.

Therefore, your statement of faith that you declare, announce and confess should be a weaponized word that is borne out of concrete biblical understanding and conviction.

- No More Death

How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him. Acts 10:38

There was a man of God who was burying people incessantly in his parish due to an epidemic. When things got to a head and he was fed up, he picked up his Bible and saw Acts 10:38 and it was as if a scale fell off his eyes. His word came! His revelation came. He didn't see the epidemic again but was rather seeing the devil. He further saw that he can also do what Jesus did. By the strength of that revelation, the last person he buried before the light came was the last. He didn't bury any other person. He healed all of them.

- My Healing Scriptures

Thus, you don't just speak. Rather, on what foundation do you speak? How convinced are you as regards what you say? Over 8 years ago, when I was sick, I had to go and look for 100 scriptures on healing. However, there were 3 scriptures that stood out for me. They were my personal revelation.

A. Psalms 103:1-3

1 Bless the LORD, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

2 Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:

3 Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases;

I don't know what the passage means to you but it means a whole lot to me.

B. 1 Peter 2:24

He personally carried our sins in His body on the cross [willingly offering himself on it, as on an altar of sacrifice], so that we might die to sin [becoming immune from the penalty of power of sin] and live for righteousness; for by His wounds YOU [who believe] HAVE BEEN HEALED. Amplified.

I read 1 Peter 2:24 in every version available.

C. Isaiah 33:24

And no resident of Zion will say, "I am sick." The people who dwell there will be forgiven of iniquity.

If my mouth is bitter or I have the slightest symptom of malaria and I fire those 3 passages, all the symptoms will disappear.

The revelation I got from that passage made me realize that it is impossible for me to fall sick. Thus, when I say "I can never fall sick", I'm telling you about the foundation and not just the letters. When I tell you that the day you hear me fall sick, renounce me as your spiritual father, I'm saying that because I am convinced He has healed all my diseases over 2000 years ago and by his stripes I have been healed- not will be healed, not might be healed but I have been healed. Therefore, it is RIP to any sickness whatsoever. A dead dog cannot bite.

As a man, can anybody convince you that you are a tree?

As you are reading this book, can anybody convince you it's a pot of stew you're stirring?

No right? Good

That is the way the conviction of the revealed word must be to you. Nothing and I mean no one can convince me that I can fall sick. No way!

During our period of waiting, I have never woken up and said to myself that I wasn't going to have a child on earth. How? It's not just possible! It has never crossed my mind regardless of the medical report. I was so convinced and that was the only reality before me. I pray a revelation is coming to you even as you read this book in Jesus Name.

- The Hagins

Kenneth Hagin said they never took their children to the hospital because of the revelation he got in Ephesians 6:1-3:

- 1 Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.
- 2 Honour thy father and mother; (which is the first commandment with promise;)
- 3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.

He further said days in the hospital are not well and all they had to do was to teach their children to obey. He read this scripture to his children continually to the extent that his son once reported himself to be rebuked because he didn't obey the instructions given to him and he didn't want to fall sick. The boy so much believed that as long as he obeyed his parent in the Lord, he can never be sick.

When I saw this played out in the life of the Hagins, I also keyed into it. From the day my baby touched my hand, I've also been reciting that scripture to her and she has never fallen sick. Every wrong thing they say happens to little children did not happen to her and every good development in babies has been her portion. When she took her immunization, she didn't fall sick as it does largely occur among babies.

Another man may hear that testimony and say to himself: "I will never take my children to the hospital as well" and it won't do him any good. It is good to confess positively but on what basis? What is your revelation?

Another scripture that stood out to me as regards my children says: I and my children which the Lord had given me are for signs and wonders (Isaiah 8:18). I and my children are for health and health. We are not for sickness! I have no fear over them because I am so convinced in that word. The BIBLE is like a constitution to me. Whatever it says is what I experience.

- Mystery on Crusade Ground

Years ago, our ministry organized a crusade in Iseyin in conjunction with the Pentecostal Fellowship of Nigeria branch of the town. The PFN executive had earlier warned us on the nature of the assignment we were embarking on. They told us that the demonic forces in the town are stronger than the ones in the city we were coming from. They told us about a great man of God that came there who confessed that it was a difficult environment. They thereafter advised us to prepare fervently.

I tell you this: we went there fasted. You know what that means? We did all the fasting before leaving for the crusade. During the programme, there was no special fasting except for our regular schedules of fasting in the ministry. I didn't even observe any special prayers while I was there.

We were to hold the crusade in front of the town hall that was beside the ancient palace and opposite the main market of the town. In this part of the world, such place is expected to be the highly demonic. On the first night when I climbed the podium, I told the audience that we've been informed that there are people full of demonic powers around. I told them that they were free to try all their powers but be ready for the consequence as well. Like I said earlier, we had our prayers and fasting before we got to the town and so, there was no compulsory fast during the crusade. We just plan and eat well to stay fit.

On the second day, as I rose to the altar with the shout of Praise the Lord, A fly entered my mouth and settled in my throat. I tried coughing it out but it stayed. I was in excruciating pain. I do have water with me so I gulped it to no effect. Any attempt at speaking or pleading the name of Jesus only brought me more pains. I then called on the Lord for help, for a revelation of the Scripture available for that breakthrough. The Holy Spirit then brought to my remembrance that when God made the animals, He declared that they were all for meat (Genesis 1:29).

And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for meat.

At least, nothing else was made after the creation and so that fly must be among the ones God declared as a protein (meat). I thanked God for the revelation and I said: “thank you Lord for providing me with a meat”. When you eat meat in your house, what do you do? Then, I opened the table water beside me and drank it. Till date, I can't say if the fly disappeared or got digested. All I knew was that I ate the meat and I drank water.

Throughout that crusade to the glory of God, signs and wonders abound and there was no casualty. Our crew members were all fine. A nurse came out to testify of healing and the PFN chairman had to attest to the fact that if a nurse testified of healing then it was healing.

That is what I am telling you about CDA. If you speak with revelation, it will yield result. If I quote “by His Stripes” at that moment, it may not work for me because there was no direct or related revelation to the issue at hand. I did call “Jesus Name”, I did call “the blood of Jesus”. Nothing changed, the pain only grew worse until I asked the Holy Spirit for the right revelation and He took me to Genesis. Immediately I remembered that scriptures, I knew beyond a reasonable doubt that the battle was over.

In essence, CDA is not just speaking the Scriptures, it is speaking a revelation. The word was revealed to me at that moment and by speaking the revealed word, Satan bowed to me at that instant. It is the revealed word that conquers.

- Rose From Death Bed

Kenneth Hagin was sick for the first 16 years of his life. He had a deformed heart and an incurable blood disease. He was bedridden for almost 2 years and was on the brink of death. Then, he decided to read the Bible from Matthew to Revelation. He told himself that if he should start from Genesis, he might have died before finishing the exercise. It was so bad that they were already selecting the hymns they will sing at his burial and were asking for his input. Doctors and pastors had pronounced his case unsolvable and incurable.

In the midst of that chaos, he saw Mark 11:24. Amongst Hagin's close circle, that verse is often referred to as Hagin 11:24. He got a personal revelation from that Scripture. He applied it and he bounced back to life. A man that was on the verge of death eventually lived to a ripe old age.

Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

Mark 11:24

The revelation was so real to him that there is none of his books that you will read today that you won't find that passage especially when he talks about faith and healing.

- My Molar Tooth

Sometimes back, I found out that one of my molar tooth was shaking, I began to quote scriptures but those scripture weren't appealing to me. They were scriptures and revelation that I have applied in other cases and that I have heard in the testimonies of others but it just doesn't seem right for the situation I had at hand. There is a way that revelation will come to you that you will know that it is the very word you need.

So, I picked up my Bible application and searched for the word "teeth". I wanted to locate a passage that has a direct correlation with what I was going through at that moment in time. I saw some passages but Solomon 4:2 appealed the most to me:

Thy teeth are like a flock of sheep that are even shorn, which came up from the washing; whereof every one bear twins, and none is barren among them.

I believe you will also agree with me that this scripture is quite suitable. Even the logos look very perfect. The revelation came to me as soon as I saw it. It means all my teeth are full and none is missing; either on the upper jaw or the lower jaw. I started to confess that my teeth are complete and none is barren among them.

I told my wife: "my tooth was shaking". She came to me in the evening and asked: "what about your tooth that is shaking?" I fired back: "I didn't tell you that my tooth is shaking, I said: my tooth WAS shaking". She got the message and said "Okay, how about the tooth that was shaking?" I replied: "thank you, it was and not any more". Remember that your CDA must be said in the perfected form. I said that statement of faith not as a wish or in hope but by revelation.

One or two days after, I was eating meat and was trying to avoid over using the affected tooth. I would gently pass the meat to the one that I thought was fine. I had finished the meat when I discovered that I was actually using the affected tooth to do all the chewing. Ever since, my tooth had stood strong.

- Dying Toenail

Another time, a part of my toenail was seemingly dead. I couldn't wrap my head around what was going on. I took a picture of it using Google Lens to search the internet. Google revealed that it was an incurable fungi infection that discolours the toenail even though it may not have other adverse effect on the toe or the body. I knew my natural father was affected with the same. I looked at my nails and I don't like what I was seeing. My wife said it will get affected till my whole nail come off. That was scary and I don't want it.

If you are close to me, you do know that I don't fancy wearing shoes. I put it on just to appear on the altar or at event. Every other time; my legs are off the shoes. I even enjoy driving bare foot. I can't imagine having to hide my feet from people. I knew the only thing that can save me was CDA and I must construct that CDA on a revelation so I began my search. I knew what Google says, it is time to find out what the Bible says.

I started with related Scriptures that I know such like: “there is hope for a tree, if it be cut down, that it will sprout again, and that the tender branch thereof will not cease. (Job 14:7)” That Scripture stood at me as a revelation but somehow, I felt unsatisfied. I needed something more. At times, you need up to two to three witnesses.

So, Psalms 91:12 came to my spirit.

They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Then I reasoned that if God cared about my feet then He cares about my toe nail as well. That was all I needed, I began to confess. The dying action stopped at the point it was and restoration began. That passage may not make much sense to you but that was my own revelation.

- Blank Sheet Turned Distinction

An incident happened to me in the exam hall during my days in the higher institution. Like some students used to say: “what I read didn’t come out”. I was about to submit an answer sheet that was as good as empty. My CA score (continuous assessment) on that course wasn't too good as well so I knew I wasn’t at a good spot. Usually, when I get to the examination hall, I don’t pray over my script, I only give thanks when I receive it and when I wanted to submit. But that day, I knew that only CDA can rescue me and that I had to pray. I began to pray demanding for distinction (A or B). Then the Holy Spirit asked me on what basis I was making the request. My faith prayer had to be based on the rock. There and then, I got a revelation by the help of the Holy Spirit. Even though I didn’t remember the particular chapter or verse at that moment

I knew that somewhere in the book of Genesis, God brought all the animals to Adam to give them names. And whatever name Adam called them was the name they answer till date. I am greater than Adam and so, I named the script “distinction”. Others may see an empty or blank sheet but I called it distinction. You see, initially, I was pleading to God to help but upon that revelation, I realized that I don’t have to plead; I just have to take charge.

And out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air; and brought them unto Adam to see what he would call them: and whatsoever Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof. Genesis 2:19

- Allergy Cured

Right from childhood, I was always sneezing. I was allergic to cold water, cold weather, dust, pollen and certain food. I go around with packs of handkerchiefs. Those days if you searched my pocket while I stand on the altar, you would find handkerchiefs in different parts of my body. My wife would buy new set of handkerchiefs for me twice in a year. When I travel for 2days, I can go with up to eight white handkerchiefs. All may get soaked with mucus before I return. The allergy was going worse as I grow older. I was reacting to many more things including toothpaste. Fan was becoming hazardous. Air Conditioner wasn’t bearable. Yet, I would react to heat too. I would be sneezing hard so much that water would be coming from my eyes and my ears and throat would become itchy. Headache would set in and I would become very weak!

I got tired one day and said to myself: there must be a way out. There must be a revelation that would cure this thing. I started searching prayerfully. I got a number of revelation but one stood out to me. It was in Genesis 1:31. It is funny when your revelation is coming from Genesis and most especially, Genesis Chapter One. You would have almost ignored it unless the Holy Spirit shows you. I said one time on my Facebook status that if Adam had not sinned, our Bible would be only Genesis Chapter One and Two. Chapter One ends with “everything is very good”. Imagine if everything around you is just very good. Chapter two ends with: “both were naked and were not ashamed”. Only if family can be like that today, there would be so much peace and joy in the home.

And God saw everything that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

Genesis 1:31

The Bible says everything God created was very good. When He made me, He said I am very good. There was nothing like better or best and nothing like bad or worse. There was no comparison whatsoever. Everything was just very good. I searched the Hebrew dictionary for the word translated “good”. I also searched my English dictionary. I compared the meanings with my situation. I concluded on the word “fitting”. The weather was fitting to me and I was fitting to the weather. No allergies and no altercation.

I applied the revelation and I started seeing everything around me in a new dimension. I wasn't seeing cold water but very good water. I stopped seeing it as being cold or detrimental to me rather, I started seeing it as water. The first meal I ate after getting that revelation was Garri (please check Google for the description if you don't know it) with iced water and groundnut. Every of those food items used to be allergic to me. My wife was even taking pity on me. She asked me to take it easy. I ate all and I was fine but I didn't allow CDA to leave my lips. I love bathing using shower but I couldn't all those years without sneezing. That day, I began to bathe with shower and I had no reaction. I used to bathe with warm water even in hot weather but that ended as well.

Every time I had the urge to sneeze or react, Holy Spirit warned me not to scratch my throat or used my tongue to itch it as I used to but to take water. That was how I won the battle.

Get revelations as regards your situation! That is all you need.

- I Can Father Children

While we were waiting on the Lord for a child, the doctors said I had low sperm count but you need to see my daughter now. She is my carbon copy. Everybody who saw her even on her first day on earth was quick to point out that she took her father's face. Even someone saw her at night and can't dispute the fact that she looked exactly like me. The same me the doctor certified had low sperm count and other medical complication with a slim chance to father a child.

The Bible says when He created me, everything was very good and that I was wonderfully made. I kept repeating that scripture to myself each day because I needed to hear it continually. As I was speaking it, I was becoming it. I could have named my daughter CDA but you people will not understand and so, I named her Faith. After all, Faith made me. Faith made it possible.

So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.
Romans 10:17

Faith comes by hearing. This is not the word that you read or that was spoken to you but the one you keep speaking to yourself over that situation.

I have few more instances of myself to give you. I hope you don't mind. I just want you to see how revealed CDA can work miracles for you on a daily basis and in every other area of your life.

- Battled with Boil

I battled with boil for over 20 years of my life. At least, I had a boil three times a month. That was the least! I would have boil on my eyes, in my ears and even in my nose. When I gave my life to Christ, when I got filled with the Holy Ghost and even when I started living in divine health, I was still struggling with boil. I remembered suffering headache and fatigue from a boil on a certain day and I cried to the Holy Spirit. I said: "show me the revelation".

Sometimes, you need to pray for your revelation and the very accurate revelation that you need.

I didn't know God heard me that day. I was in the church some days later when I noticed a pain on my eyes. I was wondering what it was and then, I touched it. I realized it was a boil so I muttered: "so, it is a boil". But I heard a voice within my spirit that says: "it is not a boil".

I was confused and argued that it was a boil. But the voice insisted, this time more quietly that "it wasn't a boil". That was when I got the gist. The Holy Spirit had dropped the revelation. One Scripture flashed through my mind: "the name Adam called the animals was the name they bear thereof". If I call it a boil, it will remain a boil but if I say it is not a boil then it is not a boil. I started confessing loudly but within me: "it is not a boil"; "it is not a boil". As soon as I said that, I heard a voice: "if it is not a boil, then what is it?" I didn't know what to answer with but again, the Holy Spirit helped me and so I said: "it is nothing". That was the end of boil plague in my life.

Then He said to me that whatever name Adam called the animals was the name thereof and you are better than Adam. I got the light and declared the boil as nothing and that was the end of the boil plague in my life. Every plague upon your life is broken right now in Jesus Name.

- Fear of Accident Destroyed

I travel quite often and the fear of accidents and dreams about accidents tormented me for long. So I asked the Lord for a word as regards accident and he led me to Revelation 1:18.

I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death.

Revelation 1:18

There, I knew He owned the keys of life and of death and He wouldn't use it against me. My Father owns the keys of life and death and He wouldn't use it against me. I first heard that revelation from Bishop David Oyedepo but it became my personal revelation. Today, no matter the means of transportation I'm using, I am not afraid of accident or death. I have told my spiritual children if you dream that I die, don't pray, just go and eat. I cannot die.

Holy Spirit ministered to me that if someone has an accident, Satan caused it. Yes, the speed may be too much. The driver may be reckless. The driver may be drinking and driving. Yet, the person at the root cause of an accident is Satan and his demons. Holy Spirit told me that because He knew that Satan is the least of my fear. If I knew it is the devil, then I had no fear because Satan has no power over me. In fact, I have power over him. I am born of God and the evil one touch me not!

- No Sick in my House

I once had a guest in my house that was to work with me but was complaining of stomach ache. I was praying for her but it was to no avail. When it persisted over a long time, I called a doctor who prescribed some drugs. I walked to the chemist and bought it myself. She took the drugs, God breathe on it and she was fine. She came around another time and complained of the ache again. My wife checked her and there was no known cause. I was furious that somebody could be sick in my house, under my roof. I sat down in my office and was conversing with the Holy Spirit. I said: “there must be a way out. Just show me the revelation and everything would be fine”.

The Holy Spirit reminded me of the Scriptures that say: “today, salvation has come to this house”. You see, Jesus said the Holy Spirit will bring us to remembrance of what we have read and seen in the Word. If you are not a friend of the Bible, you may not get the right word the day you would need it. Revelation is a product of the logos (the written word). I always say that you don’t even need to remember the chapter or verse, just the paraphrase is okay. If you need help on how to read the Bible, “My Bible, My Friend” written by Damola Abegunde is one of the best resources you can get. The book is available in our stores.

And Jesus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forsomuch as he also is a son of Abraham. Luke 19:9

Right there in my home office, Holy Spirit led me to open that passage. Then, Holy Spirit asked if I knew the Greek word translated “salvation”. Of course I do. It is “Soteria” which means healing or deliverance. Yet, I couldn't grasp the revelation. So, He told me to check for the Greek meaning. I opened my Greek dictionary and found several meanings. One of them stood out to me. That was my revelation. It says: deliverance from molestation of the enemies. I felt like jumping up. I shouted within me- “yes, it is molestation, I can’t take it anymore, Satan get out. How can you come to my house to oppress me!”

That was the turning point. I remembered that Jesus, the salvation Himself entered the house of Peter and healed his mother-in-law. I went to her, and prayed. The same devil that I have been casting out and refused to leave, I stood on that revelation and commanded it to leave. Without any struggle, the stomach pain walked out. The lady stood up, went to the toilet, slept, woke up and was fine as if nothing ever happened to her. Mind you, she didn't take any medication. That was also the end of that condition in her life.

Paul said; "I went up by revelation!" I can give you more and more examples of how I command the supernatural using CDA.

- Tread Upon Scorpion

A spiritual daughter of mine was bitten by a big black Scorpion a bit above her eye lid in her room in the middle of the night. She was in an excruciating pain. She couldn't go to the school clinic at that hour. When she informed her mum, she asked her to tie a cloth around it but she was at a loss on where to tie the cloth whether it would be around her neck or head. She remembered my teachings and opened to Luke 10:19. She got the revelation from that passage. She based her CDA upon it and started saying: "it shall by no means hurt me".

Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you. Luke 10:19.

I love it when the anchor Scripture contains fitting words for the condition. It makes revelation jump at you faster.

When we talk about revelation, you don't even need to know the complete passage or where it is located. The revelation just has to strike a chord in your spirit, then that is your word. You will just know it when it comes to you. Then, you are good to go. That daughter of mine kept declaring “it shall by no means hurt me”. The pain didn’t disappear immediately but she stood her ground. So mightily grew the word of God and it prevailed! (Acts 19:20). She eventually regained her full health. She even attended a birthday party the next morning. I tell you, the word of God is the quickest, sharpest, surest and most reliable. It can pierce through diverse aspect of your life and come through for you when nothing else can. It can cut out every diseases and pains out of your body.

For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. Hebrews 4:12

CHAPTER NINE

ACCESSING REVELATION

Meditation is the most important of all the ways to get revelation.

As you were reading those wonderful testimonies, you might be asking if it is possible for you to come by revelations. You may be thinking if it was hard or maybe you need to attain some level of spirituality. I am glad to tell you that God is ready to meet you at your level per time. Once you are ready, He is also ready.

In this chapter, I will give you the simple keys on how to generate personal revelations. I am convinced that its application will yield testimony in your life. You might have been having results with CDA before now but you are about to have dramatic results in the order of Elijah, Paul, Kenneth Hagin, Pastor Ife Adetona and other patriarchs of faith.

● Deliberate search of the word

Once you take note of that area of your life where you need an intervention, you can deliberately search for scriptures that address it. I told you how I was looking for scriptures that talk about tooth. At a time when I was building my faith on the area of healing, I looked up for 100 scriptures on healing. I put it on Google: “100 Healing Scriptures”. I read through it. I came across three Scriptures that stroke a chord in my spirit. They have been an anchor where I laid my divine health and healing upon till date. Once you see that Scripture, once you caught that revelation, you will know it. I did the same when I wanted rescue from poverty.

● Anointed books and messages

Reading anointed books like this or messages can supply you with Scriptures and revelation. I have shared many in this book already. Bishop David Oyedepo mentioned that Jesus is holding the key to life and death. I absorbed it into my spirit. I caught the light of the same revelation and it works for me. You can deliberately go in search of materials that address that area of your life.

In the Koinonia Bible Institute, we have such online specialized courses like: School of Healing, School of Financial Success, Miraculous School of Conception and Encounter School for Singles.

You can get books on the specific issue and glean your light from it.

- Meditation

You can get your revealed word by meditation. After you get your word, meditate on it, ponder on it, process it, digest it and absorb it. There are 3 stages of digestion: digestion, absorption and assimilation. When you eat certain food and vomit it- that food has begun the process of digestion but it has not been absorbed or assimilated. You have to go beyond digestion to absorption and assimilation of the word. This can be gotten only through the act of meditation.

For me to live without drugs for these eight years, I was meditating on every scripture I know about healing. I was ruminating on them, chewing them, reading them in different versions. It was so intense that I even saw myself in a dream meditating on these scripture. Today, when I tell you that I can never fall sick, I am not joking. I still meditate on healing and health scriptures till tomorrow. I told you that CDA is both curative and preventive.

When we were trusting God for the fruit of the womb and it got to a stage where I don't want anything else but a breakthrough, I took meditation on fruitfulness scriptures serious. I took it as a business. There was a time I realized I may not be able to recite those words as often as I should so I recorded them and played them every time. When my wife was close to delivery, there was this fear of a caesarian section all around us. A father to us who is in the medical field even advised us not to be strong headed when given the option of surgery. I thanked him but knew we didn't sign up for that. My wife gathered some scriptures that addressed supernatural delivery and was meditating on them. She recorded it and played it over and over to herself. She spent 16 minutes for the delivery. There was no prolonged labour, no complications. She got that miracle by meditation.

Three things are very important and they cannot work without each other: CDA, revelation and meditation.

When the Bible says faith comes by hearing, hearing by the word of faith. Faith comes by re-hearing and re-hearing. The repeated hearing is meditation. God told Joshua: this book of the law must never depart from your mouth. That is, he must always confess, declare and announce. God added, you shall meditate upon it day and night then, you can be sure that you will have good success. God did not say that he must read it day and night but must meditate day and night.

This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success.

Joshua 1:8

Instead of getting worried, get busy with the word that addresses your situation and keep speaking to yourself. Meditate on it. Let God be true and let all men be liars (Romans 3:4). That by two immutable things, in which [it was] impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us (Hebrews 6:18). Thus saith the LORD; If ye can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season; (Jeremiah 33:20) That confirmeth the word of his servant, and performeth the counsel of his messengers (Isaiah 44:26). By His wounds YOU [who believe] HAVE BEEN HEALED (1 Peter 2:24). Malaria is dead. I CAN NEVER FALL SICK.

When poverty was my next door neighbour, I sat down with the word on prosperity and soaked it in. I even composed a song around it. I was meditating on prosperity scriptures day and night. The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they that seek the LORD shall not want any good thing (Psalms 34:10). For, behold, the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch. (Malachi 4:1). For every beast of the forest [is] mine, [and] the cattle upon a thousand hills (Psalms 50:10). Thy silver and thy gold [is] mine; thy wives also and thy children, [even] the goodliest, [are] mine (1 Kings 20:3). And Abram [was] very rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold. (Genesis 13:2). Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth (3 John 1:2). For the LORD thy God blesseth thee, as he promised thee: and thou shalt lend unto many nations, but thou shalt not borrow; and thou shalt reign over many nations, but they shall not reign over thee. (Deuteronomy 15:6).

By the time the revelation came upon me through meditation, I screamed: I CAN NEVER BE POOR. Regardless of the economic downturn in Nigeria, Africa and the world, I live just fine.

I was so full of that revelation that I told our members: “if you leave today, we will miss your face but we will not miss your pocket”. I told our members: “you don’t give here as a donation. You give because you are blessed and you desire to be blessed the more”. I told them: “if you are angry that I say that, you can leave or just stay but keep your money, we will keep blessing you”.

Meditation is the most important of all the ways to get revelation.

From the testimony I told you earlier about the guest in my house, I sat in my office, spent minutes meditating, I got the revelation, I asked for the lady and cast the pain out of her!

John 1

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

3 All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4 In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

5 And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

14 And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

The book of John Chapter One from verse one explained the various transformational components of the Word. It explains that in the word lies LIFE and the life is the LIGHT. The word became FLESH and dwell with men. You have WORD, LIFE, LIGHT and FLESH. You can only extract life (revelation) from the word when you meditate on the word. It is meditation that will produce light from that life. That light will now shine in the darkness or illness, poverty or insecurity depending on the area of your life that you focus upon. The darkness will take its leave. Then, the word will become flesh (a testimony or reality) and dwell with you. As you speak it and meditate upon it, you will become it in the name of Jesus.

Today, the flesh of divine health is living with me.

Miracle is living with me.

Prosperity is living with me.

Holiness is living with me.

Fruitfulness is living with me.

- Testimonies

Another way to get revelation is through the testimonies of others. A detailed testimony will reveal to you the secrets, scriptures and revelation. I have shared with you in this book several testimonies of myself and that of others; you can glean life from it.

- Prophecy

Remember that I defined statement of faith as a word borne out of a revelation from the Scriptures, testimony or prophecy. A true prophecy that is in balanced in the scriptures can be to you a source of revelation which you will anchor your CDA upon.

- By the help of the Holy Spirit

You have seen me mentioned my conversation and the help that I got from the Holy Spirit all through the previous chapter. Until the Holy Spirit show you some light, you may never see it. It is not a difficult thing to hear or converse with the Holy Spirit. If you are addicted to meditation, it will happen by default. You can also consult my book: “Communion of the Holy Spirit”.

WHAT TO DO WHEN YOU GET THE REVEALED WORD

A. Formulate your statement of faith. When I realized that the sickness I was trying to pray over was a settled case as far back as over 2000 years ago, I formulated a simple revelation filled statement of faith: “I can never fall sick”. I have my personalized statement of faith for every area of my life like that. I have two to three and even more in some cases. “I can never be poor”, “I am healed”, “I am blessed”, “I am fruitful”.

B. Keep repeating your statement of faith. Keep confessing, keep declaring and keep announcing. Never stop doing that. Never stop meditating on your revelation. Never stop reminding yourself of those scriptures that make up your revelation. Keep at it until the word prevails.

So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed. Acts 19:20.

CHAPTER TEN

CDPlus

CDA is speaking what you desire into being. CDAPLUS is speaking and seeing it.

You might have been wondering when we will discuss the plus. Here we are. The plus is imagination. Once you confess what you desire, once you declare it, and announce it, then, begin to imagine it. The richest nation in the world is not the United Kingdom or China. It is not even the United Nation. It is your imagiNATION.

When we were trusting God for a car to aid the work of the ministry, I had a neighbour who parked his car in front of my apartment because of the way our house is structured. It is the same type of car I desire. So, every morning I imagine my car parked there and his own car parked at another space. When he travels with his car and I come out to the empty space, I imagine my car parked right before the door. In no time, my car was there.

I imagine myself holding my baby, kissing my wife's pregnant belly and it has come to pass. I imagine myself speaking to millions of people. I imagine the Great Zion City with every social amenity including banks, hospitals in it. My imaginations have come to pass and are still coming to pass.

CDA is speaking what you desire into being. CDAPLUS is speaking and seeing it. Imagination is painting a mental picture of your future. Even the occultic people know the power of speaking but much more, they know the power of seeing. They imagine traveling to places and eventually found themselves there. It is called astral projection.

Devil has deployed the power of imagination and taken advantage of many believers as a result. Devil uses dreams to cast scary imaginations and make belief on believers. He also casts the shadow of lusts on their mind. No wonder the Bible says we should cast down all imaginations that oppose the standard of God in our mind.

2 Corinthians 4-5

4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;)

5 Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

6 And the LORD said, Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do.

Counter demonic imaginations by forming your own imagination. I tell people, if you have a dream that someone is chasing you in the dream and you woke up just before he strikes you with a cutlass. Don't rejoice that you escaped. Close your eyes; imagine yourself chasing that person instead and imagine that you kill him or her then, wake up.

Scriptures on Imaginations

And the LORD said, Behold, the people [is] one, and they have all ONE LANGUAGE; and THIS THEY BEGIN TO DO: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have IMAGINED TO DO.

Genesis 11:6

One Language

When you are confessing, declaring, announcing and imagining the same thing, that is your one language. You are not hissing, cussing or murmuring, you are speaking faith. You are not saying one thing in the morning and another thing at night. You are oozing faith! Your spirit and soul are in agreement.

This they began to do

Your action begins to align. I told you that if you speak right, it will influence your actions. Fruitful people don't look happy in the morning and sad in the evening. Only barren people act that way. Busy and gainfully employed people don't sleep at home all day. Begin to take corresponding steps to the area you are declaring and imagining.

Imagined to do

Not even God can stop CDPlus. You just have to imagine it then, you become unstoppable.

Genesis 13:24-15

And the LORD said unto Abram, after that Lot was separated from him, Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art northward, and southward, and eastward, and westward:

For all the land which thou seest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed for ever.

God wasn't expecting Abraham to see with his physical eyes but his imagination. I once stood on a piece of land and tried to use my eyes to see as much as possible but I only saw a short distance- not more than two acres away. The physical sight is limited. So, God was telling Abraham to imagine and as much as he could see in his imagination was given to him.

Jeremiah 1:11-12

11 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see a rod of an almond tree.

12 Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast well seen: for I will hasten my word to perform it.

The devil cannot stop CDPlus. Where your faith says yes, even God cannot say No. When God said you should plead your case (Micah 6:1 NASB), HE is talking about CDPlus. When you imagine it, there is a force that is released to make it happen. When you see it, when you imagine it, the zeal of the Lord will back it up and make it happen.

The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this. Isaiah 9:7c

Caution

When you imagine, imagine the expected end and not the expected way. If you need school fees for instance, imagine yourself paying the school fees before the deadline. You shouldn't imagine telling a particular uncle and the uncle sending it to you. If you put your uncle in your imagination, you have just limited God in your thought and that uncle of yours may disappoint you. Don't imagine every step of the way. God only promised us an expected end. Therefore the expected way is His own business.

For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end (Jeremiah 29:11).

Additional Advantage of Imagination

1. It kills fear. Fear is a product of an imagination that produced fearful thoughts in your mind. If you overwrite that imagination with right thinking, you will alienate fear and experience good things in life. You should not imagine your husband marrying another wife because you are not having a child. You rather imagine having your children. Abraham imagined his slave becoming his heir, God corrected him. He imagined Ishmael becoming his heir, God cautioned him. Then, God told him: walk before me and be perfect. That is, he should change his imaginations. Then, his answer came (Genesis 17:1).

2. It takes you into the spirit realm. I mentioned earlier that the occultic people believe so much in imagination. They have mastered the art of overwriting the natural realm with the spiritual realm through imagination. They achieve this by engaging evil spirits. But you have God's Spirit in you. Just imagine the several earthly verdicts that you can overwrite with your imagination. When you imagine, you take charge of the physical because it is the spirit that controls the physical.

CDaplus Statement of Faith

With CDA we declare: I can never be poor, I am blessed, I can never be sick, I am whole and so on.

With CDPlus, we say: I see myself as a prosperous man. I see myself as a blessed lady. I see myself stood from that bed of sickness whole. I see myself telling people that I have never been sick for the past one month (or one year).

You will begin to include “see” into your confession, declaration and announcement.

After Lot was gone, the LORD] said to Abram, "Look as far as you can see in every direction. I am going to give all this land to you and your offspring as a permanent possession. Genesis 13:14-15

CHAPTER ELEVEN

FAITH AND PATIENCE

That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises. Hebrew 6:12

It is important to end this book with the subject of faith and patience. The Bible teaches patience and that seems as what many believers dislike the most. We are always in a rush. We want “quick-quick” or “fast-fast” but the truth is: Faith is still the fastest and the quickest. It is even the most cost-effective. When you compare faith with all other means of getting solution including medical means, you will realize that it is better to align with faith.

As fast as faith is, we must remember that it requires patience and patience requires consistency. The Scriptures says we should follow those who through faith and patience inherit the promises. Every father of faith learned patience and they applied it to their journey. In fact, what delays many people that made their faith not to work immediately is lack of patience. Patience is like the exam or test our faith undergoes. Faith in itself doesn't take time but when the virtue of patience is lacking, faith waits for it. It is until it sees patience before it can produce. If you apply patience almost immediately, your CDA will also yield almost immediately.

Consistency is a property of patience. CDA requires and unwavering consistency in confessing, declaring, announcing and imagining. If you give up or your mind is unstable, CDAPLUS will not work.

For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear. Mark 4:28

Here, Jesus described to us that even when a seed falls on a good soil, it won't produce corn immediately but the blade will come forth and then the ear then after some time, the corn. Even if your CDAPLUS is founded on a revelation, it will still need time to grow.

How Long?

Faster than medical science.

Faster than any other means.

The sister that testified of being miraculously healed of scorpion bite narrated her ordeal that night. The pain didn't go away immediately she started confessing "it shall by no means hurt me". At first, it was as if the word had no effect. Then, the pain began to recede. She would sleep off and then, the pain will wake her again. She said it was as if her head was becoming bigger and heavier. But by day break, the pain had receded with a slight ache left. She kept using CDAPLUS and then, she dressed up to attend a birthday party.

There is no medical treatment that can give her that speed of recovery except for faith. If you are not missing it anywhere in your application, your faith will work and work very fast because CDAPLUS always work.

Receiving Salvation

You were born a sinner condemned to hell but Jesus Christ died for your sins, gave you power to sin no more and to enjoy life here on earth and hereafter. All you need to do is to believe and accept His works by declaring Him as your LORD and Saviour. Do you believe this? Say: Lord Jesus Christ, I accept that you died and resurrected for the remission of my sins, I declare you as my LORD and Saviour. Amen.

Steps to Receive the Baptism of the Holy Ghost

1. You are not to ask or beg God for it, just expect it.
2. Believe He has given you and you will manifest it.
3. Don't hate tongues. That some people misuse it doesn't mean it has lost its power.
4. Don't pretend not to need it. Holy Ghost baptism is not just about tongues, it is about empowerment but tongues is the initial sign that you are baptized.
5. Clear your minds of doubts. God will give you but if you think that any sin can hinder you, ask for forgiveness now and now. (Isa 1:18 Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool). And forgive everyone in your heart.
6. As I pray for you, you will be baptized and you will speak in new tongues.
7. As I pray for you, the Holy Spirit will give you utterances and you will speak it out. Note that utterance means any sound produced with the mouth. That means the utterance could be one syllable or two. It could be one word or more. Understand that you are the one that will pronounce the utterance in anyway it comes to your mind as the Holy Spirit gives you utterance.

8. When I pray for you, the utterance would come. Don't think you are the one thinking it, it is not you. Don't think you will be unconscious or lost, it is not so. Don't be bothered if you don't know the meaning just speak it. And keep repeating whatever comes to your mind.
9. Daddy thank you because you are a faithful God, you always hear me and you are eager to give us more than we are eager to ask. I pray for you: receive the Holy Spirit right now in Jesus Name.
10. Open your mouth and began to speak those tongues.

Steps to Receive Healing

1. 1Peter 2:24 says: *He personally bore our sins in His [own] body on the tree [as on an altar and offered Himself on it], that we might die (cease to exist) to sin and live to righteousness. By His wounds you have been healed.
2. You have been healed. You have been healed even before you had that illness, what I'm about to do by praying with you is to proclaim your healing.
3. As I do that, the pains and symptoms will be no more.
4. After I pray for you move that part of your body just as though it was healed already because it is an instant healing.
5. I proclaim you healed and whole right now in Jesus Name. The last time you had that illness is the last you will ever have in Jesus Name.
6. Check it out and share your testimonies.
